Therefore, we welcome the program of reconstruction as initiated by the General Conference of our Church and outlined by the Joint Centenary Committee.

At a time when the world is trying to overthrow despotism and seeking to establish righteousness and justice in the earth, it is fitting that the Church should carry out a world program embodying those principles which alone will secure the liberties, the peace and prosperity for which all men seek.

The Centenary program comes at a most opportune time in the world struggle to emphasize reality, power and spiritual forces and to call our people to prayer, invoking God's aid in the overthrow of evil and the hastening of His Kingdom in all the world.

The emphasis given to prayer, the enlistment of life, the stewardship of all we possess and the consecration of all our resources not only to make the nation victorious in war, but also to vouchsafe her Christian principles to every nation, makes the Centenary movement not only a great Church program, but a patriotic movement to be supported by every member and friend of the Church.

RESOLVED, That we give the Centenary Movement our hearty endorsement and pledge our support to this world program in conference, district, and local charges.

Reports of Committees.

PASTORAL ADDRESS.

Dear Fellow-Laborers of the Laity:

We, your Pastors and Brethren in the bonds of the Gospel, salute you—the year through which we have passed has been a most momentous one, never since the morning stars sang together over a world created, has there been such days as these upon which we have fallen. Never such issues joined between the forces of light and the forces of darkness as are now joined. Never such responsibilities imposed upon any people as are imposed upon the christian believers in America. Never such opportunities offered for service to God and humanity as is now offered to the Church of the living Christ. Never did the voice of duty sound more clearly or fall on more attentive ears than now.

Out of wars, red confusion and the world chaos into which war has plunged us will be born, please God a new day; a day of immunity from the despoiler's hand; a day of opportunity for the least and weakest of earth, a day of privilege for all men. The world henceforth is to be not a neighborhood but a brotherhood. Society is to be reconstructed upon the principle of the golden rule.

To watch and wait and hope and pray, and fight and bleed is to come forth enobled and purified and made strong for the tasks which await us. Shall the moral energy that has been evolved out of the world's war be seized upon and made tributary to the Kingdom of God and his righteousness? Shall the world's supreme opportunity be coined into gold for the Master's use?

When war's necessities have broken the strangle hold of demon rum, when shot and shell has broken down our fortifications of selfishness and taught us the fine art of liberality, when much anxiety mingled with fear has taught many feet that were hitherto strangers to the way, the path to the place of prayer, may we not with much urgency and persistency proclaim the name that is above every name and His gospel which is the power of God unto Salvation unto every one that believeth. Believing as we do that there is no other name given under heaven or among men whereby we can be saved, will we not buckle on the armor and go forth to our tasks even as heroes go forth to battle.

Acknowledging ourselves bound with you in the bonds of a common cause with mutual interests and mutual expectancies, may we not indulge the hope that you, our brethren of the laity, in the Southern Illinois Conference and the whole church, will meet with faith and fidelity the responsibility of the new day whose dawning is now at hand.

That our Methodism, which has borne the brunt of many a hard-fought battle, will meet this day of opportunity and responsibility with high-born courage, we steadfastly believe.

Following the Captain of our salvation we cannot fail. True to the doctrines of our beloved Church, and faithful in the performance of every task imposed upon us, we shall make our former glory seem a very small thing by reason of the glory that excelleth. Brethren, "The King's business requireth haste."

J. S. CUMMINS.

REPORT OF F. M. VAN TREESE, Corresponding Secretary of Conference Claimants Endowment Commission.

The standing of the Southern Illinois Conference in relation to its Conference Claimants:

The average salary paid the members of the Southern Illinois Conference is $951.00.

The Disciplinary Annuity Allowance for the retired ministers is $13.58.

The rate paid last year was $7.00 or 52% of the full claim.

The amount needed to pay the retired preacher his full claim is $21.484.

The amount paid last year from all sources was $13.283.

The deficiency was $8,201.

We hope to increase this fund every year until the full annuity is paid.

Your Corresponding Secretary visited and addressed all the District Conferences, and from the 24th day of March until 15th day of September, helped some preacher every Sunday with his campaign for subscriptions on the Endowment Fund. Many of these will report their apportionment in full. If the way had been open, he would have gladly visited and helped others during the year.

Many Official Boards and Quarterly Conferences have signed a pledge for the whole amount, thus recognizing the justness of the claim.

By this plan the $100,000 could be pledged in a few months. After this the Charge could have five or ten years if necessary to pay the claim.

The Progress of the Campaign:

We have secured subscriptions by individuals and charges in three years	$76,800
And in the same time collected	27,667
Cash from bequests	3,000
Cash from Life Annuity Bonds	32,000
Total cash received	$ 62,667
Uncollected pledges	49,133
Sarah J. Snell Memorial, Carmi	2,500
Real Estate at Olney	1,500
	$115,800

Several wills have been written in our favor and from 7 to $10,000 have been reported. If our people only knew how much good their money would do for all time, we would have all the money we need to pay the retired preacher his full claim. Let the District Superintendents and the pastors see to it that our people get the vision.

F. M. VAN TREESE.

AUDITOR'S REPORT.

To the Southern Illinois Conference:

This will serve to advise you that I have this day made a careful examination of all books of M. J. Foster, deceased, Treasurer of the Conference Claimants' Society of the Southern Illinois Conference, and also the report prepared by Mr. J. M. Mitchell, president of the Society, and have carefully checked all the bonds, mortgages. and other papers. and find the amount of the Endowment Fund of the Society at this date to be $63.240.34. invested as follows:

Municipal and first mortgage bonds	$31,640.00
Real Estate—first mortgage loans	31,225.00
Personal notes	230.50
Cash on hand	144.84
	$63,240.34
After this report was read to the Conference, on Oct. 8th, F. M. Van Treese, Corr. Secretary, sent Treasurer	1,250.00
Grand Total	$64,490.34

The books and reports agree. We regard the funds as carefully and conservatively invested, the books are unusually well kept, and the securities are carefully safeguarded by being deposited in a large safety deposit box in a modern fire and burglar-proof vault in the American National Bank, Mt. Carmel, Ill.

Very truly yours.
Signed: M. J. WHITE,
Attorney and Accountant.

O. F. CULVER, President.

The nomination of Dr. W. T. Cline to the committee, and delegate the power of appointment of a layman to such commission, also, when found, to the chairman of this committee.

COMMITTEE ON EPWORTH LEAGUE.

Recognizing the use of the training camps as a means to efficiency in the Great Conflict, we would urge that every pastor sense the opportunity that is afforded them in the Epworth League to train for future usefulness the youth of today.

We further urge that the "Big Drive" be the program constantly held up to every Chapter in the Conference.

Also that the McKendree Institute be acknowledged as contributing to the success of the Epworth League work.

P. R. GLOTFELTY, President.
W. E. BENNETT, Secretary.

WHEREAS, The Leagues of the Conference by vote of every district convention have assumed the responsibility of providing for the support of the Old Peoples' Home;

EPWORTH LEAGUE BOARD.

Recognizing the need of a trained leadership in the church, we ask the pastor to earnestly keep the McKendree Institute before the young people, so that every congregation will have at least one representative at this institute, which meets at Lebanon August 4—10, 1919.

W. E. BENNETT, President.
L. A. MAGILL, Secretary.

FREEDMEN'S AID SOCIETY.

The Freedmen's Aid Society is achieving in these trying times heroic things for the uplift of the colored race. Through this society, the Methodist Episcopal Church is expressing its response to a great home missionary problem. The society maintains twenty-one schools, where two hundred thousand colored boys and girls have been given Christian education and training, preparatory to leadership in the fields of Christian service. It is one of the crowning glories of Methodism that some of its brainiest, strongest and holiest men and women have given themselves in uttermost sacrifice to serve as presidents and teachers in these schools, and the church should count it a privilege to sustain them in their task.

A War Call.

On account of the constantly increasing cost of everything entering into school expenses, the Freedmen's Aid Society pleads for a corresponding increase in the offerings of the church for its support. Its students and graduates are serving their country in the cantonments and in the trenches. Back of these loyal men, who are helping to make the world safe for democracy, are the Freedmen's Aid Society schools preparing others to fill the places made vacant by the fall of the heroes at the front. These schools should be more fully sustained in this hour of their greatest need and indeed of their greatest service.

We recommend, therefore, the observance of Lincoln Day in all of the churches, that increased offerings be secured to cover the larger burden of expenses due to war prices, and that the literature prepared by the society be liberally distributed in the Sunday Schools and public congregations.

A. C. GEYER, Chairman.
J. W. BRITTON, Secretary.

COMMITTEE ON EDUCATION.

McKendree College.

We endorse proposition of Dr. P. S. Vogt to place a rural worker on faculty of McKendree College, and would request the Board of Home Missions to assume support of same.

We further urge that McKendree College be added to the beneficiaries of the Centenary Campaign to the amount of fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) per year for the Centenary period.

Wesley Foundation.

Rejoicing in the success of this movement, we urge its completion within our borders and would extend to the Secretary the rights and privileges for same for the period of six months.

Methodist Educational Interests in Illinois.

We recommend the appointment of the following: C. L. Peterson, W. H. Whitlock, J. G. Tucker, C. C. Hall, J. W. Flint, G. E. McCammon, and P. R. Glotfelty, as committee to confer with like committees from Illinois and Central Illinois Conferences, and the resident Bishops of the same, and Dr. Harris of the Board of Education, on the educational program of Methodism in Illinois.

Theological Schools.

Attention would be called to the opportunity offered by Garrett Biblical Institute and others of its kind for training the ministry of our church, and we would urge all men preparing for the ministry to avail themselves of their opportunities.

We would commend this outstanding Woman's College to every Methodist home for its girls and young women, and felicitate Dr. Harker on his achievements.

DISTRIBUTION TO CONFERENCE CLAIMANTS

Forasmuch as a resolution was passed at the last session of Conference, which reads, "Resolved, that beginning with the Conference session of 1918, the Conference Claimants fund be distributed quarterly, in advance",

We, the retired ministers and other claimants upon said fund hereby express our earnest objections to such a method of distribution, as it will incur additional expense and prevent claimants from having the use of a large portion that they might use to their personal advantage.

THEREFORE, RESOLVED, That the Conference Claimant fund be distributed annually as heretofore, and that the resolution requiring that said funds be distributed quarterly be, and is hereby, rescinded.

This institution continues its mission of mercy in caring for homeless and dependent children with gratifying results. 92 children found shelter under its roof during the past year. Of this number, homes were found for 43, while 49 were kept temporarily for their parents.

The year closes with 31 children on hand. 11 of these are to be placed in homes, while 20 are kept for their parents.

It is worthy of note that no death has occurred during the year and that only one death has been reported in the Home since it was founded.

Notwithstanding the many calls for money and the increased cost of labor and provisions, the Home has been so generously supported, that we are able to report the largest balance during the history of the institution.

The Treasurer reports as follows:

REV. HARRY EVERETT McKNIGHT.

Harry Everett McKnight, eldest son of William E. and Lucy E. McKnight was born December 4th, 1875, and departed this life December 12th, 1917, at the age of 42 years and 8 days.

On December 16th, 1900, he was married to Harriet Alexander, and on December 25th, 1904, their only child, Noble Wiles McKnight, was born.

Having been converted at the age of 21 years, he felt the call to the ministry in December, 1902; and in order to prepare for his life's work, he entered McKendree College in 1907. He was ordained Elder in the Methodist Episcopal Church in 1910; and in June, 1915, he graduated from McKendree College with the degree of Master of Arts. While in College he served several student charges.

In the fall of 1915 he entered fully upon his life's work at Wesley Methodist Episcopal Church, Mt. Vernon, Illinois, where he was pastor at the time of his death.

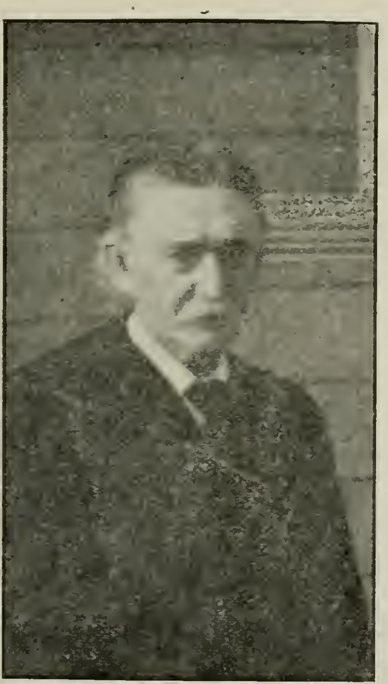
He leaves his beloved wife and son, his mother, his brothers: Clarence, Lester, Pearce, Tim and Guy; his sister Lois; a host of grieving friends and a loving congregation to mourn his departure.

Brother McKnight's life was a most exemplary one. His many friends will always hold him in grateful remembrance, as one of them said: "To know him was to love him."

The funeral services were held in the Church at Robinson, the funeral sermon being preached by Rev. O. L. Markman.

REV. JOHN P. YUNGLING.

John P. Yungling was born at Luray, Page County, Virginia, May 8th, 1840. His education was obtained at the Mossy Creek Academy and Stanton University, Va. The daughter, Sadie S., and one son, Joseph, died in infancy. The four surviving sons are: John H., of Santa Maria, Cal., Gilbert H., of Gardena, Cal., Paul F., living on the Island of Java, and Sargent Charles W., with the A. E. F. in France. Brother Yungling was admitted on trial in the Southern Illinois Conference in 1871 at Cairo, Ill. He was received in full connection and ordained a Deacon by Bishop I. W. Wiley at Jerseyville in 1873. Completed his Conference Course of Study and ordained an Elder by Bishop R. S. Foster at Centralia in 1875.



He served the following Charges: 1871, Junior preacher at Hebron; 1872, Bible Grove; 1873, Johnsonville; 1874, Freeburg; 1875, Nashville Ct.; 1876, Beaucoup; 1877, Freeburg; 1878, Mt. Vernon Ct.; 1879-80, Jeffersonville; 1881-82, Mt. Erie; 1883-84, Lancaster; 1885-6-7, Bridgeport; 1888-89, Newton; 1890-91, Robinson. In 1896 he went to Carlyle, 1897-98 Bunker Hill. In 1899 he was again made Supernumerary, and 1900 he retired, having removed to Santa Paula, California, in 1899. In 1913 with his wife he removed to Gardena, California, where he continued to reside until the time of his death, April 16th, 1918, being 78 years, 10 months and 8 days old. He served long and well, now he rests from his labors.

REV. L. W. THRALL.

Leonidas Worthy Thrall, son of Worthy and Hannah James Thrall, was born at Bone Gap, Edwards County, Illinois, February 2, 1850. His earthly career reached its close in DuQuoin, Ill., May 21, 1918, at the age of 68 years and 3 months. His sun went down at noon, for mentally and spiritually he was at his best. Dr. Thrall was of the best blood, his mother being Welsh and his father of New England Puritan stock. He was a descendant of Wm. Thrall, who came from England to America in 1630 and settled at New Windsor, Conn. His great-grandfather was a captain in the Revolutionary War. His was a class of people always identified with the best around them. He was converted and established membership in the Methodist Episcopal Church in childhood, and very soon became conscious of a clear call to preach. That he was a chosen vessel unto the Lord was made equally clear to the church, which at once began to urge him in the direction of the ministry. In preparation for this, after having used the advantages of the common schools, he attended the academy of the Northwestern University at Evanston, Ill., one year. In 1869 he entered McKendree College at Lebanon, Ill. With great energy he passed the entire college course in three years and received the degree of Bachelor of Arts in June, 1872. During part of this time he taught school in Lebanon and made frequent preaching tours in the adjacent communities. While a student his unusual scholarship and brilliant oratory attracted much attention and gave no uncertain promise of the great pulpit and platform ability which so strongly marked his entire Conference career. He was frequently in demand for baccalaureate sermons and class day addresses, in which kind of work he peculiarly excelled. His preaching was also strongly evangelistic, and many gracious revivals were among the fruits of his ministry. He was a student of wide reading and and highly cultured scholarship. Three years after having received his bochelor's degree he received from the same authorities the degree of Master of Arts. This was followed by twenty years of hard study and professional reading, in recognition of which together with other eminent qualifications McKendree College conferred on him the degree of Doctor of Divinity in 1895. The Conference record shows that he was admitted on trial in the Southern Illinois Conference at Mt. Vernon in September, 1872. In passing the Conference course of study he moved in regular order, being received into full membership and ordained a deacon by Bishop Levi Scott at Mt. Carmel in 1874. In 1876 at Olney he completed the course of study and was ordained an elder by Bishop Mathew Simpson. His pastorates were as follows: 1872, Liberty; 1873, Freeburg; 1874-5, Pinckneyville. In the fall of 1876 he was transferred to the South Kansas Conference, having been elected president of Hartford Collegiate Institute at Hartford, Kansas. During three years' work in Kansas his time was divided between teaching and preaching. In September, 1879, he was transferred back to the Southern Illinois Conference and stationed at Ashley where he served for three years. He was pastor at Grayville, 1882-3; at Metropolis, 1884-5-6; at Salem, 1887-8; then pastor for four years at Greenville. In September, 1893, Bishop Charles H. Fowler appointed him presiding elder of Vandalia District, which he served most efficiently for six years. On retiring from the district he was appointed pastor at Lebanon, where he served for four years. In 1903 at Flora he began the longest pastorate ever served in the Southern Illinois Conference, doing the work of that splendid charge for nine years. A strong, fruitful pastoral term. At this time he asked for a change and was appointed to Harrisburg, serving four years. This pastorate was marked by sweeping revivals, the membership of the church being more than doubled. In 1916 he was appointed to DuQuoin. Though conscious of waning strength he entered upon this work with his usual courage and faith, while suffering under great physical afflictions he still continued to do the whole work of a Methodist preacher, many times preaching from his chair when unable to stand in the pulpit. His last public effort was Easter Sunday morning, March 31, when he presented the missionary and benevolent claims of the Church for the current year, receiving cash and subscriptions which show high water mark in the history of the charge. Dr. Thrall was an ardent friend of higher education. For more than thirty years he was a member of the Board of Trustees of McKendree College, during which time he always stood for the highest grade of work. He was an active factor in placing the college in its present high rating among the standardized institutions of the day. Long will his voice and influence be missed in the Councils of the college. The confidence of his brethren was shown in his election to the General Conference at Cleveland, Ohio, in 1896, and at Chicago in 1900, in each of which he served on important committees with credit to himself and honor to his Conference. His domestic life was ideal. September 29, 1873, at Lebanon, Illinois, he was married to Miss Edith M. Flint, the first woman graduate from McKendree College. Five children came to bless this home, and all now survive to serve the Church and adorn society. They are Miss Edith L. Thrall, a deaconess under direction of the Southern Illinois Conference, now teaching in Jennings Seminary at Aurora, Ill. Rev. Victor Worthy Thrall, pastor of Covenant Church, Evanston, Ill., William Flint Thrall, professor of English in McKendree College at Lebanon, Ill., Rev. Charles Haven Thrall, pastor of our church at McLean, Ill., and Rev. Harold L. Thrall, pastor of our church at Sandorus, Ill. They are a great working force in the Church and an honor to their parents. November 10, 1898, Mrs. Thrall went to her coronation, leaving our brother desolate, yet strong in the Grace of God, the confidence of the church and the love of his children. He is also survived by one sister, Mrs. C. W. Campbell, wife of Rev. C. W. Campbell, of Reevesville, Ill. December 27, 1900, at Ingraham, Ill., he was married to Miss Emily Jones, who has been a tower of strength in the home, a helpmate indeed, wisely and tenderly watching over his declining years. Mrs. Thrall with their one daughter, Mary Virginia, now a student in Jennings Seminary, remain with us and are held in the highest esteem. With our brother the war is over. For forty-six years he received his appointments, went promptly to the field and rendered a good account of himself; for in this army he was a soldier who never quailed before the enemy, his sword was never sheathed and his arm never lowered in the day of battle. He was unmoved at Verdun. On the great western front when life's sun was going down he won out, and obtained a lasting peace which blending with the fadeless fellowship of glory will run parallel with eternal ages.

WILLIAM A. BROWDER.

William A. Browder was born in Nashville, Washington County, Illinois, September 8th, 1842. He was united in marriage to Miss Hattie A. Henry of Nashville, April 11th, 1877. To this union two children were born, Ethel, who died in infancy, and Olin L. Browder, of Urbana, Illinois.

Brother Browder died as the result of a street car accident September 19th, 1918, in Urbana, Ill., where he had resided for some time.

Rev. Browder was a member of the Southern Illinois Conference for many years, and during that time most acceptably filled the following appointments: Spring Garden, 1867; Mt. Vernon Ct., 1868; McLeansboro, 1869-71; Equality, 1872; Eldorado, 1873; Harrisburg, 1874; Dongola, 1875; McLeansboro Ct., 1876; Supernumerary, 1877-79; McLeansboro Ct., 1880. He was given a located relation in 1881 to engage in evangelistic work, a work to which he was peculiarly adapted and in which he proved most acceptable. He served as pastor of Moulten Church, Shelbyville, one year, and four years as pastor of Grace Church, Urbana.

Since 1915 he had not been engaged in active ministerial work, but always held himself in readiness to assist the pastor where he resided in every way possible. He spent several years as a resident of Mt. Vernon, Illinois, and was greatly beloved of the people of that city, because of his consistent christian character.

He leaves to mourn his departure his wife, who was the faithful companion in all his labors of more than forty years, and his son, Olin L. Browder, and the multitude of friends whose lives were made blessed through his ministry.

MRS. SARAH ADELAID McGRIFF.

Sarah Adelaid Hitchcock, daughter of Samuel and Sarah L. Hitchcock was born near Jamestown, Pa., July 3rd, 1838. She passed away at Deming, N. M., February 11th, 1918. She spent her early life on the farm.

Her religious life, with her membership in the Methodist Episcopal Church, began in childhood. She united in marriage with Rev. J. H. McGriff, December 10th, 1864. They lived two years in Southern Ohio. They then spent ten years in Tennessee, where Rev. McGriff was a member of the Holston Conference, efficiently serving Charges of our Church during the perilous days of the reconstruction period. In 1877 they were transferred to the Southern Illinois Conference, where they served the following Charges: Equality, Vienna, Freeburg, Mulberry, Makanda, Chester and Olney Circuit. In March, 1908, her husband passed on to his reward, leaving her in widowhood for the rest of life's journey.

She was the mother of five daughters, three of whom have preceded her in death. The two surviving are Mrs. Samuel McAdams and Miss Mary B. McGriff, both of Deming, N. M. Her last days were spent with her daughters by whom she was tenderly cherished and cared for until she crossed over the bar, February 11th, 1918, lacking only a few weeks of being eighty years old. Her last days were filled with suffering, but beautiful in faith and resignation. She was intensely devoted to all the interests of the Church. For many years she was actively connected with the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society at Olney, Ill., where her daughter will keep alive her membership by payment of dues, so that "being dead she yet speaketh."

MRS. MARY L. BONNER.

Mary Reed Leever was born near Cleveland, Ohio, October 31st, 1833.

She was converted and joined the Methodist Episcopal Church in her 14th year. After the death of her parents, she went to Illinois to live with her sister, Mrs. E. Leming. October 20th, 1870, she was united in marriage with Rev. Charles W. Bonner, of the Southern Illinois Conference. She lost her only child September 26th, 1871, when it was only one week old. From the time she was sixteen until within a few years of her death she was an active worker in the Sunday School.

She became a member of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society soon after its organization. In 1875 she was elected Secretary of the Young Woman's Missionary Society for the Southern Illinois Conference.

After her husband's eye-sight failed, she did his reading in the pulpit. She always accompanied him in his pastoral work when her health would permit. In April, 1909, she was elected Department Chaplain of the Ladies of the Grand Army for California and Nevada. She was Chaplain of the Circle in Long Beach, California, for more than two years. Verily, she hath done what she could. She passed to her eternal reward March 4th, 1918, and was laid to rest beside her husband in Sunny Side, California.

MRS. MARTHA E. CUNNINGHAM.

Martha E. Cunningham was the daughter of Herbert R. and M. M. Dare. She was born in Elk Prairie, Jefferson County, Illinois, March 27th, 1850

She was married to J. L. Cunningham February 26th, 1867, near Mount Vernon, Illinois. To this union five children were born, two died in infancy. Three daughters are still living—Mrs. Ida Francis, (with whom she made her home for the last seven years);

Mrs. Keith J F. Dutson, of Tampico, Old Mexico; and Mrs. Cliffe Kay, San Jose, California.

Sister Cunningham was converted and united with the Methodist Episcopal Church when a girl, and was an earnest, faithful Christian to the end of her life. For nineteen years she was the wife of a Methodist preacher, and together with her husband shared in all the experiences—the joys and trials of the parsonage. Her home life was simple and beautiful—devoted to her children, but in full sympathy with all the work of the Church, and a true helpmeet to her husband.

The death of her beloved companion about five years ago was a great blow, and affected her health. She was confined to her home for the last two years. June 15th she was taken to St. Elizabeth's Hospital, Belleville, Ill.; but not improving was removed to her daughter's home in Belleville, where, after three weeks of severe illness, she departed this life and went to her Heavenly home, August 6th, 1918.

After a short funeral service in Belleville, Ill., conducted by the pastor, Rev. John H. Jones, the body was shipped to Mt. Vernon, Ill., and services conducted by Rev. J. G. Tucker, in the First Methodist Church, after which the remains were laid to rest in Woodlawn cemetery by the side of her husband.

MRS. MARY JANE GROVES.

Mary Jane Mitchell was born in Hardin County, Illinois, December 6th, 1840, and died in her home at Nashville, Illinois, September 15th, 1918. The call came on a quiet Sabbath morning, and just as the bells were ringing calling the people to the House of Worship, her spirit took its departure in response to the final summons home.

Her lineage was of that virile stock of protestant dwellers of the north of Ireland. Her father being a native of Londonderry and her mother being also of Irish descent. In early childhood she moved with her parents to Jeffersonville, Indiana, where she grew to womanhood and where her education was completed. August 6th, 1860, she was married to the Rev. S. P. Groves, a member of the Southern Illinois Annual Conference, with whom she walked in holy wedlock for more than fifty-eight years, sharing with her husband the joys and deprivations of the itinerancy. Her husband's appointments during these years included some of the most important Charges in the Southern Illinois Conference, but in none of these did she fail to measure up to the most exacting demands of her position. She was a quiet and unobtrusive woman, ever ready to serve the Church and administer comfort to the sorrowing.

Mrs. Groves was typical of the God-fearing, enduring, patient minister's wives who walked side by side with their husbands in earlier days of Illinois Methodism.

Having been converted in early childhood she, throughout all the years, walked in constant communion with her Lord. Her death was peaceful and characterized by a triumphant faith.

Mrs. Groves was the mother of seven children. Four of them died in infancy, and a son, Dr. J. E. Groves, died some years ago at the age of forty-five. Two children, Mrs. Rhoda G. Oakley, of Detroit, Michigan, and C. Cooper, of Nashville, Illinois, survive the mother. Beside her husband she leaves one sister, one brother, six grandchildren and two great-grandchildren to mourn her loss.

The funeral was held at the family residence in Nashville, Illinois, Tuesday, September 17th. The service was conducted by Ressho Robertson, Superintendent of the Centralia District, assisted by Rev. Rev. W. H. Mehl, and the Rev. D. O. McRoberts, pastors respectively of the German and English Methodist Episcopal Churches in Nashville. The body was laid to rest in the city cemetery of Nashville to await the morning of the resurrection.

MEMORIAL GIFTS.

The Southern Illinois Conference adopted a resolution providing for the publication of a memorial list to be a part of its records, the names of those who by legacies, memorials, and gifts of $1,000 or more who have manifested their love and high esteem for the beneficiaries we serve. The Conference is entering upon a campaign to raise a Permanent Fund of $200,000, the interest of which is to provide a more adequate support for the retired preachers, their widows, and dependent children of the Southern Illinois Conference.

Those interested in any way in this great movement should write F. M. Van Treese, corresponding secretary Endowment Commission Southern Illinois Conference, 730 Veronica Avenue, East St. Louis, Illinois.

Welch's
Grape Juice

IN the beginning Welch's the pure unfermented juice of Chautauqua Concords, was made to supply an unfermented juice for the sacrament. For more than forty years this "Fruit of the Vine" has so been used in churches of many denominations, with entire satisfaction.

Physicians and pure food authorities testify to the purity and healthfulness of Welch's. It is just the pure, unfermented juice of choicest Concords. Today you will find Welch's being used increasingly as a safe beverage in the home and where temperance drinks are sold.

Order through your Dealer, specifying Welch's. Sample 4-oz. bottle (price 10 cents) mailed on request.

PASTORAL ADDRESS.

DEAR BRETHREN:

We, your "co-laborers together with God," salute you. One year ago when we addressed you the great world war was at its height. The blood of our sons was being spilled with that of other nations in defence of democracy and world freedom. Now that the war clouds have lifted and the nations of earth are seeking peace and amity, the Church of God faces an unusual opportunity. Quoting from our own Bishop McDowell, we ask, "Who shall redeem and restore Germany, France, England, Russia, and America if not those who speak for and speak of Christ with modern Christian imperialism and vitality? Who shall lead China, Japan, India, Turkey, and Africa unto the light and into the light but those who bear the light? Who shall recover and create for the world the lost consciousness of its essential unity and universality in Christ? This being our task, we seek to enlist all the forces of our Church in this great work of world reconstruction, that we may rally "to the help of the Lord against the mighty."

Since "it was God's good pleasure through the foolishness of preaching to save them that believe," we sincerely urge our pastors to sound more clearly the evangelistic note in all our preaching.

Our people should be led to see the importance of and to practice more persistently the call to personal evangelism. As our good Bishop Quayle has so aptly said, "By mine own hand" should be the desire and joy of every disciple of Christ.

We are in hearty and prayerful accord with the evangelistic purpose of the Centenary campaign and feel that pastors and laymen should seek to co-operate, so far as local conditions permit, with the great program of the Church for winning the unsaved to faith in Christ.

Revival meetings should be held in every church; the Epworth League should observe "Win My Chum Week;" our Sunday Schools and Junior Leagues should prayerfully observe special decision days; but the efforts of the Church to instruct and lead to decision the children and youth who God has placed at our hands, must not be restricted to special days, but rather become the chief business of the whole church, since it is the greatest of all work given to us by Christ our Saviour.

That the Church may minister efficiently to our own and the coming age, we must have a more thoroughly trained ministry. To piety and goodness must be added developed ability. This true, it behooves us to do all in our power for the training of the men who are to man our pulpits. We preachers and laymen should not only encourage young men to heed the call to the ministry, but should urge them to attend our schools and colleges, where the best preparation possible may be obtained.

The scarcity of ministers in many of our Conferences is alarming. Very few men apply; in some not a single man being admitted. We urge upon our people the necessity of making the matter of the call of strong young men to the ministry a subject of earnest prayer.

May the Holy Spirit give power and guidance to both ministers and laity in the great tasks which the stress of the times lays upon us.

L. W. PORTER.
GEO. R. GOODMAN.

REPORT OF F. M. VAN TREESE,

Corresponding Secretary of the Conference Claimants Commission,

To the Southern Illinois Annual Conference,
Held at Mt. Carmel, Illinois, October 1, 1919.

Dear Fathers and Brothers:—

I come to you with my Fourth Annual Report. I am truly grateful to our Heavenly Father for that measure of success that He has given to our great cause. Without His aid we would not have accomplished what we have done. The Church must not forget its builders.

Our great Church in its Centenary Movement has subscribed more than One Hundred Milllions for the re-building the world. If we rightly interpret the signs of the times and the spirit of Methodism, the men and women who have given their lives in consecration and service to God and His Church will not be forgotten in the time of feebleness and old age.

We are living in a new age. Efficiency is the watch word of this day. The industrial world demands it, the State demands it, The Church must also demand it. The non-efficient man everywhere must step down and out. He will give place to the man who can make things happen.

The Conference Claimants Endowment provides a pension for the retired preacher, his widow and dependent children.

The shadow of the Conference Claimant of the past in his old age, poverty and helplessness has fallen across the pathway of many a bright and intelligent young man who had a Divine Call to the ministry.

We are coming to a new day, when the church is saying to her young men: "Get the best preparation for your life-work—then give us the best that is in you, and we will take care of you when old age comes on."

——o——

A Bit Of History.

The Conference Claimants Society of the Southern Illinois Conference was organized and chartered in 1909. J. M. Mitchell, Mt. Carmel, President, and Rev. Wm. Carson, Olney, Corresponding Secretary.

Some property was secured, Life Annuity Bonds issued and less than $2,000 was collected from various sources.

The Conference Claimants Endowment Commission was created at the Conference at Mt. Vernon in 1916, with plans to raise by cash subscriptions $100,000.00 Endowment Fund. After one year's campaign this amount was increased to $200,000.00.

The Commission announced its plan to raise $100,000.00 by subscription from churches and individuals and secure the second $100.000.00 in large gifts, property, bequests and Life Annuity Bonds.

During the four years of our campaign appeals have been made to Official Boards and Quarterly Conferences and individuals to sign pledges on the 5 or 10 year plan. Our people have been urged to remember the Conference Claimants Endowment in their wills. Several wills have been reported to us, from $200 up to $4,000. Possibly others have been written in favor of the Conference Claimants, but not reported. We have issued 19 Life Annuity Bonds ranging in amounts from $200 up to $29,000, on which we pay annuity. So far as I know none of those taking out annuity bonds would have given their money to the fund without annuity.

Respectfully submitted,

TEMPERANCE.

We rejoice in the tremendous achievements accomplished during the year by the help of God in the cause of temperance. The ratification of the Constitutional Amendment and the enforcement of the War Prohibitory measures have brought unspeakable comfort and satisfaction to all lovers of mankind and dismay to our enemies. The consistent attitude of Congress and the efforts of law enforcement, with the decisions of the Courts, have perceptibly cleared the atmosphere. We thank God and take courage.

We are minded to make mention of the splendid services of our Church Board of Temperance, of the Anti-Saloon League and allied organizations, and to express our appreciation of their magnificent leadership. We pray God's richest blessings of comfort and wisdom and power still to abide upon them.

While thankful for the wonderful victories achieved we are persuaded that the larger work lies before us and doubtless the hottest fight. Our enemies are neither dead nor asleep. The ground we have gained exposes us to fierce counter attacks and we can only hold it by pushing forward to more advanced position. Every conceivable effort and all kinds of insidious propaganda will be used to nullify the law or modify it. To lay our warfare by in easy assurance will be to lose everything.

Accordingly the battle that lies before us for law enforcement, we will urge our people to renewed confidence in the work and leadership of the Anti-Saloon League.

Outstanding in the contemplation of the future is the compelling world need. We remember that we do not live to ourselves and we must accept the fight for world prohibition, for a saloonless world. America cannot make shift for her own soul and disregard the need of others. In the things that are moral and spiritual, the affairs of the whole world are vitally ours. Our affairs are wrapped up in theirs. We dare not drive out the evil spirit from our own body politic and permit his invasion elsewhere. We therefore commit ourselves definitely to a program that includes World-Wide Prohibition.

C. H. SPRAGG, Chairman.

PETITION BOARD OF TEMPERANCE AND PUBLIC MORALS.

We, the Southern Illinois Conference, respectfully petition you, the Board of Temperance and Public Morals, to provide funds for the maintenance of an office within the State of Illinois, which may be properly named, for a careful study of our conditions and needs and with this preparation be ready to have and maintain a lobby at the State Constitutional Convention soon to be held to guard and advance the principles for which we stand as a people.

Because of his intimate knowledge of, and splendid work along this line in the State, we further petition that the Reverend Doctor Elmer Lynn Williams be placed in charge of this work.

W. H. WHITLOCK.
C. C. HALL.
RESSHO ROBERTSON.

BOARD OF HOME MISSIONS AND CHURCH EXTENSION.

Realizing that there are many in the home-land that have never been reached by the Gospel, and that the Gospel is the only remedy for the industrial unrest of the present time, and that the Board of Home Missions and Church Extension is a great factor in bringing the Gospel to the masses and through the Centenary Movement will become a more effective agency, we, therefore, approve the plan of the Board and urge our people to co-operate in every way possible with the Board in their work of extending the Kingdom.

COMMITTEE ON EDUCATION.

WHEREAS, There is a growing demand for a trained ministry and Christian lay leadership in the Church;

WHEREAS, There is an insistent demand for and need of educated and trained Christian men in all business and other spheres of society;

Whereas, The Methodist Episcopal Church in general and the Southern Illinois Conference in particular are depending on McKendree College for trained Young Men for the Ministry;

WHEREAS, McKendree College in order to meet these demands and to maintain the required educational standards is undertaking to raise a sustentation fund of $100,000 in five years; be it

RESOLVED, (1) That we endorse the policy to raise $100,000 sustentation fund;

(2) That we refer the plans and methods of this effort to the Board of Trustees of McKendree College;

(3) That we hereby pledge our unqualified support and help in this effort to secure the $100,000 fund.

RALPH WAKEFIELD,
Chairman.
CLARK YOST, Secretary.

McKendree College.

We recommend that pending decision as to final disposition of the 80% of the Conference Educational Collection it be held by the Conference Treasurer, and in case of disagreement as to its final disposition, it be the order of this Conference that it be turned over to the Treasurer of McKendree College.

We recommend that the payments made by the Conference to McKendree College be credited on back interest on the Conference note of $50,000, thus adding $50,000 to the productive endowment of McKendree College.

We rejoice in the establishment of a school of religious education at McKendree College, and recommend that the Board of Home Missions and Church Extension be asked for the sum of $5,000 annually for five years to finance this department of religious education, and for $5,000 additional annually for five years to establish and finance a department of rural and industrial sociology. And we further recommend that a request for $2,500 be made to the Board of Education to help finance the Deanship of the College.

We congratulate McKendree College and its friends upon the election to its presidency of Dr. George E. McCammon and pledge to the new administration our cordial and hearty support. The installation of the new president, which will be held November 12th, offers a splendid opportunity to the ministers and laymen to visit this, our only educational institution within the bounds of the Southern Illinois Conference.

We recommend that during the ensuing year we forward our Educational Collections with other Centenary money through the New York Office, unless notified by the Treasurer of McKendree College that monthly remittances are not forthcoming to them, in which case the entire Educational offering shall be forwarded directly to the Treasurer of McKendree College.

Realizing as we do that the world is on the eve of the most stupendous changes in all its history;

That the shattered civilization of the world is to be rebuilt on new lines;

That the only safety of the humanity of earth lies in the Church of God, and in recognition of the glorious achievements of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society for so long in answering the cry of the benighted humanity of earth;

We most cheerfully commend the work of the society and most heartily recommend that the Church everywhere lend every encouragement to these Godly women.

SABBATH OBSERVANCE.

WHEREAS, God has given to man the Sabbath, that he may cease from his worldly care and go to the House of Worship, where he may reflect and enjoy the blessings God has given him through the past, and he in turn give to God his reverent and prayerful consideration in thought, in song, in holy meditation, thereby renewing his spiritual, physical and mental strength.

THEREFORE, RESOLVE, That we, the Southern Illinois Conference is opposed to all Sabbath desecrations and everything that will have a tendency to detract the young and old from the House of Worship.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF THE OLD FOLKS' HOME.

Board of Directors Old Folks' Home.

Ressho Robertson	President
C. B. Whiteside	Vice-President
J. B. Stout	Secretary
Geo. H. Corrie	Treasurer
W. J. Fahnestock	Chairman Executive Committee

C. L. Peterson, M. H. Loar, Mrs. J. J. Gould, A. R. Ransom, W. I. Terhune, Mrs. G. M. Highsmith, O. L. Markman, S. B. Vaughan, C. H. Spragg, W. H. Whitlock.

During the year the Home has been moved from its rented quarters at Lebanon to its fine new home in St. Francisville, given us by the late Charles Parkinson, through his sister, Mistress G. M. Highsmith. The family have been most happy in their new home.

There are still four of the eight life members of the Smithboro Home. All are in reasonable state of health. Five self-supporting or partially self-supporting members have been cared for in the Home during the year, one of whom, Mistress E. M. Brothers, passed away during the early summer. The family now consists of five members and the matron. There is room for ten.

The treasurer's report will show that the move leaves us $300 more in arrears, making our present debt $600, with property valued at $6,000.

By action of the Board Rev. M. H. Loar has been appointed a special committee to solicit large gifts with which to pay this debt, to provide repairs and to furnish special support for other old people who need a home but have no support. $5,000 will provide endowment for a perpetual membership. It is our alternate aim to have ten such endowment memberships. $250 a year will provide support for a needy one. Friends may contract at this rate to furnish support for members of the Home during lifetime. We feel sure that pastors will help Rev. Loar to reach those who are able, and that he will not be unwelcome by our splendid laymen.

In the meantime self-supporting members will be received into the Home at the rate of $25.00 per month so long as there is room.

The Epworth Leagues of the Conference have assumed the responsibility of raising the funds for the running expense of the Home. $2,000 a year is needed. By vote of the Conference the Sunday before Thanksgiving is set apart as Old Folks' Sunday, upon which day this offering is to be taken. By the hearty co-operation of the pastors the entire amount can be raised on this day. It is hoped that on the charges having no league the pastor will assume the responsibility. Some of our best offerings have been raised in this way.

The following is the Treasurer's Report for the past year:

Receipts.
Borrowed money	$ 600.00
Self-Support	200.00
Offerings	1,023.62
Overdraft	29.13
Total	$1,852.75

COMMITTEE ON FINANCE.

We commend the service and ministry of our institutions located within our borders, namely: The Orphanage at Creal Springs, The Old Folks' Home at St. Francisville, The Holden Hospital at Carbondale, and McKendree College at Lebanon, and urge that in all the plans of the managements thereof their representatives be given hearty welcome to our pulpits and co-operation in the forwarding of their work.

We also invite co-operation with our Anti-Saloon League in its efforts for World Prohibition. We express appreciation for the action of the Lay Conference in its expression of desire that the minimum support of the ministry be fixed at $1,300.00 and suggest the Conference's acceptance.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON FINDINGS.

The largest opportunities and the gravest challenges command the attention of the Church and of its leadership.

Having passed the crisis of the greatest world's war that has ever afflicted mankind, we are at the dawn of a new age. The world has engaged in slaughter on an unprecedented scale. The most comprehensive imagination can not grasp the cost of the world's battle in suffering, death, and destruction. Now, that the immediate agony and loss of battle are over, we still have a shattered world and a bewildered civilization calling for the inspired leadership and help of the Church. We have to lead out into the light of God a confused and darkened, yet a plastic and formative, human race. In the whole world we are facing the necessity of revaluing human life and character and of reconstructing the world's philosophy to harmonize with the spirit of Christian democracy.

The forces that launched the war, though finding expression in a professedly Christian empire, were a travesty on Christianity. Aggressive autocracy, with its distortions of and substitutions for Christianity, with its pagan trust in power, and its denial of brotherhood, having met its defeat in the world war, must be made to yield to the larger victories of Christian democracy in peace.

We are in the greatest need of knowing what God is trying to do in our day and then of throwing ourselves into His task. No doubt the best interpretation of God's plan and purpose in the present day, is expressed in the Centenary program of the Methodist Episcopal Church. The wisest leaders of the Church, both laymen and ministers, men of closest fellowship with God and of largest comprehension of world needs, even before the World War began, realized the truth of what the President afterwards spoke, "A supreme movement of history has begun." Under the vision and inspiration of Methodist leaders, the guiding and shaping hand of God has been made clearly visible to us all. God has planted, deep in the soul of every true Methodist, the conviction that the Methodist Episcopal Church has a world parish as the destiny of her message and experience and the beloved Church squares herself to make her world-task her supreme business. What our President said concerning the nation, may also be said concerning the church today, after the agony of battle is over, but while the turbulence and bewilderment are still on, "God helping her she can do no other. We must all speak, act and serve together."

The Centenary, having won its first great achievement, must go on and on until its ultimate objects are achieved and the privileges of Christian democracy shall have found expression in the life and experience of all nations.

To the end that Methodism may accomplish its tasks unhindered, we therefore strongly urge:

1—That Methodism maintain its world policy without limitation of sectional or color lines and by seeking a unification unembarrassed by seggregation.

2—And finally that any tendency to involved, or complicated and expensive machinery for carrying forward the work of the Centenary be made subject to the careful scrutiny of the General Conference.

A. C. GEYER, Chairman.
W. H. WHITLOCK, Sec'y.

BIBLE CAUSE.

Since the Holy Bible is the foundation of our faith and works as a church folk; and as it contains our only hope of eternity, let us, as a great church body, give it the deserved place in our homes and hearts, and heartily commend and encourage the work of the American Bible Society in giving it to the world.

J. W. WEBSTER, Pres.
W. L. CUNNINGHAM, Secy.

SUNDAY SCHOOLS.

We emphasize the vital worth of the Sunday School as the training department of the Church. Beginning with child training, which is the supreme business of the church, the Sunday School has to do with the religious education of the individual throughout his life.

We endorse the work of our Sunday School board in its wise and untiring efforts to attain a larger efficiency in the teaching force of the Sunday School and to reach higher standards of moral and religious culture among its members. The work done by the Sunday School is essential and fundamental and should command the whole-hearted devotion of the entire Church.

To this end a school membership drive should be instituted in every church of the Southern Illinois Conference until every member of the Church and all our Methodist constituency shall be embodied in the membership of our Sunday Schools.

A. C. GEYER, Chairman.
J. B. CUMMINS, Sec'y.

MEMORIALS.

We, your Committee on Memorials, submit the following:

1—A Memorial to General Conference passed by the Illinois Conference at its annual session in Charleston, Illinois, two weeks ago, asking that the Benevolent Boards be co-ordinated and unified so as to avoid overlapping and duplication was sent to our Conference for our consideration. We recommend that the same be adopted by this Conference.

2—A Memorial came also to our Conference from the New Jersey Annual Conference, concerning the Courses of Study, memoralizing the General Conference to place the making of the Courses of Study back into the hands of the Bishops.

We recommend that our Conference concur in the same action.

3—A Memorial coming up from the Carbondale District Conference asking that just consideration in the way of compensation or pension be given to Local Preachers who have given at least ten years of service to the church as pastors. We recommend its adoption.

WHEREAS, The Central and Illinois Conferences are lifting their boundaries; be it

RESOLVED, That we memorialize the General Conference that the boundary of Southern Illinois also be lifted and a more just distribution of territory be assigned this Conference.

Memoirs.

REV. ALBERT HARRIS.

Albert Harris was born at Columbus, Indiana, October 20th, 1852. He died in Sparta, Illinois, January 16th, 1919, aged 66 years, 2 months and 26 days.

Most of his early life was spent at Paris, Illinois. October 10th, 1878, he was married to Miss Mary Thomas, of Farmer City, Illinois. Three children came to bless this home. One of these, Robert Gay, died in infancy. One son, Albert Nelson, and one daughter, Mrs. Anna Bess Oliver, both of Sparta, Illinois, survive. Mr. Harris began his ministry in the Methodist Protestant Church, by which church he was ordained an Elder in 1880. He was admitted on trial to the Southern Illinois Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church at Edwardsville in 1885, and served continuously till October, 1918.

REV. ALBERT HARRIS

His pastoral charges were as follows: 1885,6 Watson; 1887,8,9 Patoka; 1890 Shawneetown; 1891 Omaha; 1892,3,4 Alma; 1895 Mason; 1896 Xenia; 1897,8 Louisville; 1899, 1900 Farina; 1901,2,3 Odin; 1904 Flat Rock; 1905,6 Oblong; 1907 Nashville; 1908, Century Church, East St. Louis; 1909 Coulterville; 1910 Epworth Church, Mt. Vernon; 1911,12 Chester; 1913,14 Kane; 1915,16,17 Sparta; 1918

Retired. His last pastorate at Sparta comprised three years of fruitful labor. He helped to plan and was permitted to see the erection and dedication of the splendid new church; at the same time the Church realized unusual spiritual growth and prosperity. In all his charges Brother Harris did faithful work. As a preacher he was logical and spiritual. God called him from the zenith of his ministry. He went out from the highest type of earthly esteem and love to enter the exalted fellowship of heaven.

REV. GEORGE S. WILSON.

George S. Wilson was born in Shelbyville, Illinois, September 17th, 1882, and died at the Wesley M. E. Parsonage in Mt. Vernon, Illinois, January 3rd, 1919.

He was reared in a Methodist home by a noble Christian mother, and was converted at the age of twelve years, uniting with the Methodist Episcopal Church. At thirteen he began earning his own living and was indeed a self-made man.

He was married to Miss Lida Pritchey, of Chicago, February 25th, 1903. To them were born three daughters and two sons; they are: Don, Loraine, May, Ritchy and George T., who with his mother, Mrs. Barbery Wilson, of Shelbyville, one brother, Tom Wilson, of Finley, Ill., one sister, Mrs. Lizzie Burch, of Seigert, Ill., still survive him.

He began his work as a Y. M. C. A. worker in Chicago; also was in the employ of the C. & E. I. Railroad. He was ordained three years ago and was appointed to Fortney Charge, which he served one year, then to Dahlgren, where he served two years; last Conference he was appointed to Mt. Vernon, Wesley M. E. church, where he began a most successful year under very adverse circumstances—the influenza was taking his people and the church was heavily in debt, no services could be held, but he gathered a few of his official members and organized them to raise the amount and in an incredibly short time they had raised $1900 and paid off all indebtedness. He was a shrewd business man, a great social worker, a model husband and father, a dutiful son and above all a noble Christian. He made no enemies, but hosts of friends. His death came as a great shock to the whole city and many tributes of respect were shown to him and his sorrowing family. He suffered greatly, his death being due to spinal meningitis resultant from Spanish influenza, but his death was a triumphant one. His funeral was conducted by his District Superintendent, Rev. J. A. Taylor, assisted by several brother ministers.

MRS. E. O. ALLEN.

Lola, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. S. W. Webb, of Walnut Hill, died at her parsonage home in Browns, Illinois, February 16th, 1919, aged 22 years, 5 months and 9 days.

She was converted and united with the Methodist Episcopal Church when about thirteen years of age. To her Master she was ever faithful, following where it pleased Him to lead. She was united in marriage with Rev. E. O. Allen, May 8th, 1916. To this union was born one daughter, Dorothy Dale, who preceded her mother to the spirit world just six days with that dreadful contagion—the "Flu." Sister Allen was a faithful and loving wife and mother. She leaves to mourn her departure a husband, father, mother, two brothers, Loyd and Julius, and two sisters, Mrs. Sylvia Davis, of Pittsburg, Ill., and Lucile, at home.

The funeral services were conducted in the Methodist Church at Browns by Rev. J. A. Taylor, the District Superintendent, assisted by Rev. W. C. Bruce, of Belmont, and Rev. George Fidler, of Albion. Her body was laid to rest beside the grave of her baby daughter in Union Grove Cemetery in Williamson County, Illinois.

MRS. F. G. HESLET.

Mabel McCormack-Heslet, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. J. L. McCormack, was born at West Liberty, Illinois, May 22nd, 1892. She moved with the family to Bone Gap, Illinois, in 1896. She began the christian life early, uniting with the church at Bone Gap in 1901. She was given the best of school privileges, graduating from High School in 1908, after which she attended McKendree College, taking special training in music. She completed the course in piano in 1910, then took post graduate work for one year. August 14th, 1918, she was married to Rev. F. G. Heslet and went at once to Albuquerque, New Mexico, where her husband held position as a college teacher. When the epidemic of Influenza swept the country, she was called home to attend the funeral of her sister Dorothy October 4th, 1918. She contracted the same disease and died at the home of her parents October 31st, 1918. She had lived 26 years, 5 months and 9 days. She was active in all church work, was an accomplished musician, and gave promise for a life of service, but was suddenly called away.

Truly the Master said: "What I do thou knowest not now; but thou shalt know hereafter."

MRS. HARRIET BELLE McKNIGHT.

Harriet Belle Alexander was born September 23rd, 1875, and died at her home in Oblong, Illinois, April 22nd, 1919, aged 43 years, 6 months and 29 days.

The deceased was the daughter of James and Susan Alexander, was born near Darwin, Illinois. After the death of her father, the family moved to Hutsonville, where they resided for a number of years.

December 16th, 1900, she was married to Harry B. McKnight, and December 25th, 1904, their only child, Noble Wylde McKnight, was born.

In 1902 Mr. McKnight was called to the ministry and in order to prepare for his lifework, the family moved to Lebanon, Illinois. where he entered McKendree College.

In the fall of 1915, after his graduation at College, he was assigned to Wesley M. E. Church, Mt. Vernon, Illinois, and continued as pastor at that church until his death, which occurred at Robinson, Illinois, December 12th, 1917.

After the death of her husband, Mrs. McKnight's health failed and she took to her bed in the parsonage of Wesley Church, Mt. Vernon, February 16th, 1918, and on the first day of May of that year moved to Oblong, where on her bed of pain she has since resided, surrounded by loved ones who have done all that human hands and medical skill could do to relieve her suffering.

Through all her affliction, however, no word of complaint was uttered and she continually rejoiced in Christ her Savior.

She is surived by a son, Noble, a mother, three sisters, two brothers, and a host of relatives and friends.

Funeral services were conducted by Rev. O. L. Markman, District Superintendent of the Olney District, at Central M. E. Church, Oblong, Illinois, and burial was in the Wilkin Cemetery.

MRS. J. T. MURKIN.

The Church of God Triumphant constantly increases in membership. The white-robed souls of the saints escape from earth and appear in heaven day by day. No worthier soul has ever found its way to the "Mansions of the Blest" than the soul of our departed sister, Mrs. J. T. Murkin, wife of Rev. J. T. Murkin. Seventy years of earth life. Almost sixty years a devout follower of Jesus Christ and a consistent and consecrated member of the church. Almost forty years the wife of a consecrated man of God, who was for nearly twenty years an active minister of the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

Sister Murkin was the mother of three children, all of whom survive her. In company with her husband she served the following charges: Watson, Xenia, Claremont, Hutsonville, Belknap and Mulberry Grove. In all of these places the work of God prospered under their faithful ministry.

Sister Murkin was specially helpful in the work of the church and a vast assistance to her husband in revival meetings. Here her consecration and leadership had finest development and sway. She was powerful in prayer, earnest in presenting Christ a Savior, and successful in leading many seeking ones into the light of the knowledge of the glory of a christian life. She suffered much in her lifetime. Never rugged, but always sustained by a mighty energy and persistency, she lived and loved and worked beyond her strength.

The last two years of her life were spent in almost helpless invalidism. In these trying hours and long days and longer nights her christian virtues shone if possible even more brightly than during her active period of life.

The body of this saintly woman was laid to rest in Oakland Cemetery, Mt. Vernon, Illinois.

MEMORIAL GIFTS.

The Southern Illinois Conference adopted a resolution providing for the publication of a memorial list to be a part of its records, the names of those who by legacies, memorials, and gifts of $1,000 or more who have manifested their love and high esteem for the beneficiaries we serve. The Conference is entering upon a campaign to raise a Permanent Fund of $200,000, the interest of which is to provide a more adequate support for the retired preachers, their widows and dependent children of the Southern Illinois Conference.

Those interested in any way in this great movement should write F. M. Van Treese, corresponding secretary Endowment Commission Southern Illinois Conference, 730 Veronica Avenue, East St. Louis, Illinois.

CHURCH AND HOME INSURANCE.

OUR TWENTY-FIRST YEAR.

ONE HUNDRED AND FIFTY-FIVE MILLION DOLLARS ($155,000,000.00) is a pretty large sum even in these days of big things and yet the amount of protection we have granted in our nearly twenty-one years of history exceeds that; over THIRTY-NINE AND THREE QUARTER MILLION DOLLARS ($39,750,000.00) is now in effect, by far the largest amount since we began business.

No Policy Holder has had to wait a day for a dollar that was due unpaid for losses, although our Losses have aggregated over ONE MILLION DOLLARS ($1,000,000.00).

Churches, Parsonages, their Contents, Schools, Ministers' Property and Home Property of the people who build and sustain the churches are insured against Fire, Lightning and Windstorm, AT COST. NO ASSESSMENTS. PREMIUMS IN EASY ANNUAL INSTALLMENTS. SAVINGS GO OUT TO NEARLY 19,000 POLICY HOLDERS, who own the Company.

P. R. Glotfelty, Litchfield, Ill.

Secretary of Executive Committee.

His Sermons are GOOD

BUT his Delivery POOR

You often hear this criticism of well known clergymen. They have beautiful thoughts and put them into beautiful words - BUT their delivery leaves a congregation cold and unmoved - They don't get the Power of emphasis into their manuscripts or notes - fine points are lost in monotony of type.

Hammond
MULTIPLEX

Standard "Writing Machine"

literally makes your writing t-a-l-k. With the instantly interchangeable type you write as you think with emphasis on every point, and every climax put into words that pulsate with your deepest feelings. And when you deliver a sermon typed on the Multiplex or refer to notes—you can't fail to get the telling power of emphasis into your delivery—the words stand out at you—you must get them to your listeners with feeling.

Prominent clergymen everywhere praise the versatility of the Multiplex, the only interchangeable type and language machine—the Multiplex typewriter has over 365 different arrangements of types and languages from condensed note size to extended type for headlines—and writes all languages from Sanskrit to Kata Kana Japanese.

"JUST TURN THE KNOB"

to change from ordinary type to emphatic Italics or from one language to another.

The Multiplex is the typewriter President Wilson uses personally.

The first paragraph of this advertisement shows a few samples of Multiplex type.

Write for booklet telling of all the marvels of the Machine that has made History—and for special rates to clergymen. Address

Fiftieth Year of National Service
Welch's
Founded 1869

Welch's

"THE NATIONAL DRINK"

Founded on the principle of national welfare, Welch's has been growing in service and popularity for more than 50 years. First prepared for sacramental purposes, then prescribed by physicians for its healthfulness, and finally adopted by all the people as a delightful beverage, it is truly "The National Drink". Now as always, Welch's is just the pure, unfermented juice of ripe Concord grapes, pressed fresh and sealed in glass.

Welch's Grapelade

"A pure grape spread"

A new member of the Welch family, and fully worthy of the Welch name. It is made from whole, ripe grapes, without seeds, skins or acid crystals. Its fresh grape flavor is delightful. As a spread for bread, biscuits, muffins, toast; for making tarts, jelly-roll and other pastry; for ice cream and sundaes, Grapelade is equally fine.

Write for Welch Ways, a Book of 99 recipes for using Welch's, and we'll also send a new collection of recipes for Welch's Grapelade.

PASTORAL ADDRESS.

Beloved when we gave all diligence to write unto you of the common salvation it was needful to write unto you and to exhort you should earnestly contend for the faith once delivered unto the saints.

Our holy religion is comprehensive in scope, beneficent in design and and has behind it the might of God and he shall not fail nor be discouraged till he hath set judgment in the earth.

The Christian religion is intended for all men everywhere and also fits into the needs of every nation and every tribe.

It has a worthy program for the rich and the poor and meets the needs of the entire race. It is the sheet anchor of our hope. It will save us, and let the word be plainly spoken it is the only thing that will save us.

The religion which we profess and proclaim is the world's one hope in these turbulent days; not education, politics, league of nations, nor any other thing except it be saturated and directed by the spirit of Jesus Christ, can permanently bless and benefit.

"There now be prophets many, some crying here and some saying, Lo there": Hold steady, ask for the old paths wherein is the good way and walk therein and ye shall find rest unto your souls.

Let us banish error by preaching and maintaining sound doctrine.

We have confidence in the Lord that ye will do the thing we command. Amen!

P. R. GLOTFELTY.
J. W. CUMMINS.

THE ANNUAL REPORT OF F. M. VAN TREESE,

Corresponding Secretary of the

CONFERENCE CLAIMANTS' ENDOWMENT COMMISSION.

To the Bishop and Members of the Southern Illinois Annual Conference:

Dear Fathers and Brethren:

Soon after Conference of 1915, the commission was called together and formulated plans for the intensive campaign.

Conventions and group meetings were held in each District.

Bishop Quayle and all the District Superintendents co-operating in the movement.

Many of the preachers and laymen delivered addresses and took pledges and cash subscriptions from churches and individuals.

This method has been continued, as far as practicable, through the period of five years, securing cash and subscriptions, $78,000. The goal is $200,000.

The Difficulties Under Which The Commission Has Labored:

During the last five years we have passed through the greatest World War of history, the government calling for financial aid from our people. We had numerous drives for Liberty and Victory Loans, Red Cross and other welfare organizations, to all of which our people responded liberally.

Then our Church put on a great Centenary Campaign and secured pledges for about $115,000,000.

Our campaign for Endowmen Funds was almost paralyzed by these numerous and urgent appeals.

1. Our people have become better informed concerning the law of the church and the just claims of the retired preacher. His claim is no longer regarded as a benevolence, or he as an object of charity, but his claim is as just and legal as that of the Bishop, District Superintendent, or the Pastor, and where there is a deficiency in ministerial support his claim must be prorated.

2. The fact of the Endowment Fund removes all anxiety and worry from the mind and heart of the preacher now in the effective relation. He is now free to travel, buy books, prepare sermons, do pastoral labor and educate his children, knowing his future is secure. He now knows when his salary ceases and he and his wife or his widow will be cared for by the church he has so faithfully served.

3. The young man who hears the Divine Call to preach the gospel received a great inspiration to make the best preparation possible for his life work. He is encouraged to spend his money and years in college to make that preparation thorough. He sees the church he loves and wishes to serve is anticipating the needs of old age and feebleness.

4. Our Conference is interested in the success of this great movement. Our ranks are being depleted every year by transfers. Most of the conferences pay larger salaries and many of them pay the full annuity claim of their retired ministers. In self-defense, if for no higher motive we must meet the full claim of our Conference Claimants and pay better salaries to our effective preachers if we hold them.

5. The laymen are calling for trained leadership. They will give a liberal support if they can secure the service. If the laymen provide a living wage for the effective preacher and a pension for the retired minister, they are entitled to the service of trained leaders.

6. The campaign has emphasized the fact that the preacher is the essential man in the State, Church and Community. Without his message and faithful pastoral labors, there would be no church buildings, no sacraments, no Sunday Schools, no Epworth Leagues, etc., etc. He is the leader in all moral and religious movements for the betterment of society and the world. He is our essential man.

Our Conference Claimants have been greatly benefited.

In 1915, the year the Commission was appointed, the annuity rate for our retired preachers was fixed at $6.00, or 47% of their full claim.

In 1919. the claim was $14.35 and the annuity rate fixed at $10.00, or 70% of their just claim.

It is hoped that the Southern Illinois Conference will very soon pay the full claim of its retired men.

The Financial Results of the Campaign.

		40,796 00
Total Assets		$147,399.77

Some Recommendations to the Conference.

1. There is $30,000 in uncollected pledges, much of which is not due. Many of those pledged to the fund at the beginning of the campaign have changed their residence. Statements calling for payments of their pledges are returned unclaimed. Some have died and no provision made to cover pledges made in life. Now, unless some plan is adopted for the collection of the balance of the unpaid pledges, most of them will be lost to the fund.

2. The Life Annuity Plan of the Conference Claimant Society should be constantly kept before our people as a safe and sure as well as profitable investment of funds—for the kingdom of God.

3. Every Methodist in Southern Illinois should be frequently reminded that in making his will, after providing liberally for all his dependents, to remember the Conference Claimants of the Southern Illinois Conference.

4. Finally, brethren, let us be of one mind, and work together for the increasing and upbuilding of this fund.

Respectfully submitted,
F. M. VAN TREESE,
Corresponding Secretary,
Conference Claimants Endowment Commission.

Recommendations.

1. That the Conference Claimants Endowment Commission be continued for three years, or more, until the goal of $200,000 is reached.

2. That Dr. F. M. VanTreese be retained as the Executive Secretary of the Commission, and that all expenses of the commission be paid out of future income of the commission.

3. That all unfinished business at the close of this Annual Conference be referred to the Executive Committee of the Commission with power to act.

OLD FOLKS' HOME REPORT.

We bring you the happy greetings from your family at the Home at St. Francisville. Its members are in reasonably good health, are happy and contented, and are delightfully cared for. The four life members are still in the Home. There have been eleven members in the Home during the year, all but the four mentioned being self-supporting. One of these, Mrs. Mary Roach, passed away during the summer. The family now consists of seven members, the matron, Miss Mabel Gray, and her assistant, Miss Helen Gibson.

The Board has retained Rev. M. H. Loar to represent the Home for large gifts of endowment. An endowment of $5,000 will provide for a perpetual membership. A gift of $250 will provide a year's membership. The Board will accept memberships at $25.00 per month. The family for the year has averaged almost eight, and the keeping cost has been $300 per year.

The Board has negotiated the sale of its interest in the Greenville property at $175.00. The property has been incorporated under the laws of this state. The Home has been given a two-coat painting, and a large cistern dug and attached to the water system of the Home, all at a cost of $305.15.

Last year an overdraft and a note of $600 and interest were against the Home. This year the churches have generously met all the claims of the Home, paid its debts and the Treasurer reports a balance of $296 09. For this good showing much credit is due Rev. W. J. Fahnestock, the pastor at St. Francisville, and G. H. Corrie, the treasurer.

Financial Statement.

Income from charges	$2,599.60
Self-support	737.00
Sale of Reeves property	148.10
Rent and miscellaneous	72.80
Total	$3,557.50
To overdraft and note	$ 653.13
To improvements	305.15
To general home expenses	1,177.90
To matron and helper	500 00
To all other expenses	625.23
To balance	296.09
Total	$3,557.50

Recommendations.

That an amount equal to 2% of the pastor's cash salary be apportioned to the charges for the support of the Home, and that the Sunday just preceding Thanksgiving be set aside as Old Folks' Home Day, and that an offering for at least this amount be taken in each charge in the Conference, said offering to be sent direct to G. H. Corrie, Treasurer, at St. Francisville, Ill., and that the Epworth Leagues be asked to make the Home their special conference interest.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF MANAGERS of the

ORPHANS' AND CHILDREN'S HOME OF THE SOUTHERN ILLINOIS CONFERENCE,

METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH.

The Orphans' and Children's Home of the Southern Illinois Conference has passed its probationary period and is no longer on trial as a Conference institution.

During its eight years' existence it has provided temporary aid and in many instances found permanent Christian homes for about 500 children. This fact is sufficient answer to the question as to the need for such an institution. And the favor with which it is looked upon by the people of the Conference may be determined from the fact that its income has steadily increased from year to year, the amount received the past year being the largest during its history. The increase in the amount of income is not more significant than the source of it. Of the 214 charges in the Conference, 203 responded to the Christmas appeal last year with amounts ranging from $1 to $300. This was not done as formerly by the Superintendent going throughout the Conference and presenting the claims of the institution or employing an agent to do so, but a single appeal at Christmas time has been sufficient the past two or three years for the maintenance of the Home. So successful has this plan been that the Board of Managers have decided to continue it. And the people of the Southern Illinois Conference are urged to see to it that when Christ comes seeking temporary shelter there shall be room for Him at this inn. For He surely appears in every worthy appeal and His "Inasmuch as ye have done it unto the least of these" finds no more practical application than in the care for these little ones.

Efficiency in the management of the Home may be seen in the fact that in these eight years of care for 500 children only one death has occurred. The intellectual and spiritual needs of the children have received attention equal to that of the physical. Attendance at school, Sunday school and morning church service is as faithfully maintained as in the best regulated Christian home.

Resolutions of confidence and appreciation concerning the management of the Home were passed at the recent meeting of the Board of Managers.

The report of the Superintendent states that during the year 76 children have found shelter at this hospice.

The treasurer reports as follows:

Balance on hand Sept. 1, 1919	$ 2,689.58
Receipts from all sources	11,906.27
Total	$14,595.85
Disbursements	9,617.67
Balance August 31, 1920	$4,077.89

The following persons are nominated to serve as members of the Board of Managers:

To serve one year—G. R. Goodman, C. D. Shumard, L. C. Campbell, V. E. Richardson.

To serve two years—Robert Morris, P. R. Glotfelty, G. E. Martin, S. B. Vaughn.

To serve three years—L. W. Porter, L. Smith, N. E. Prince, L. H. Buckley.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON WOMAN'S FOREIGN MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

It is a known fact that the dead level above which no civilization can rise is the status and development of womanhood.

Also that no man can reach the women of non-Christian lands.

To reach and raise them the church called into being the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society.

This past year their efforts were centered upon medical work in which so large a field is open only to them. This coming year their efforts center upon Evangelism, in which work it is as impossible for a man to reach woman.

But notwithstanding this vital need which women alone can meet in our Conference, with 215 pastoral charges, there are but 73 auxiliaries of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society.

Therefore, be it resolved, that we, the District Superintendents and Pastors of these charges propose to these women a united endeavor to add not less than ten new auxiliaries in each district and to double the membership in every present society and pledge our heartiest co-operation.

W. H. WHITLOCK, Chairman.
M. H. LOAR, Secretary.

COMMITTEE ON FOREIGN MISSIONS.

Whereas, We believe that the urgency of our Lord's commission, "Go ye and disciple all nations," has not lost any of its force through the years; and,

Whereas, We believe that the present unrest which is rife in all the world, and is threatening our civilization, can be overcome only by the power of Christ; and,

Whereas, The world is open to evangelical Christianity as never before;

Resolved, That we urge upon all our ministers the necessity of fully informing upon this momentous subject, and of pressing such information upon their people until every society from minister to humblest, youngest layman shall become an enthusiastic supporter of foreign missions.

VIRGIL GOULD, Chairman.
C. C. DAWDY, Secretary.

BOARD OF HOME MISSIONS.

We commend the Board of Home Missions for its past large achievements, for its larger present undertakings, and for its comprehensive vision and plans for the future.

We urge our people to make themselves acquainted with the work of this Board, to read its literature, to catch its vision of the vast educational and spiritual needs of America, and to support it in its wide and ramified plans to make America really Christian, and, therefore, in the highest sense a united, loyal and patriotic republic.

The Board of Home Missions is seeking the solution of such problems as reconstruction, Christian education, the more thorough Christianization of industrial and economic conditions, and of rural lfe, and the Christian Americanization of the many millions of people who have come to our shores from alien lands.

In the achievement of its vast program the Board of Home Missions challenges the co-operation of all Methodism and urges the loyalty of every Methodist to the lofty purposes of the kingdom of God.

ROBERT MORRIS, President.

WOMEN'S HOME MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

This Committee desires again to call attention to the splendid work accomplished by the Women's Home Missionary Society through the agency of their two Conference institutions: the Holden Hospital at Carbondale, and the Slavonic Mission at East St. Louis; and we recommend that auxiliaries be organized and maintained on each charge.

SUNDAY SCHOOLS.

We feel that the vital worth of the Sunday School as the training department of the Church cannot be over-emphasized. Beginning with child training, which is the supreme business of the church, the Sunday School has to do with the religious education of the individual throughout his life. And where the Sunday School has been properly utilized, it has beyond doubt proven itself to be the greatest contributor to the feeding of the life forces of our church; and therefore we urge that all special days, such as Rally Day, Decision Day and Children's Day be observed as suggested by the Sunday School Board. Also, we endorse the work of the Sunday School Board in its wise and untiring effort to attain a larger efficiency in the teaching force of the Sunday School, to reach higher standards of moral culture among its members. The work done by the Sunday School is essential and fundamental, and should command the whole-hearted devotion of the entire Church.

To this end we feel that every Church within the Southern Illinois Conference should put forth a special effort to induce every member of the Church and its constituency to become an active member of the same.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON NEGRO EDUCATION.

To the Southern Illinois Annual Conference:

(The work of this Board has been carried on for over fifty years. The General Conference authorized and directed each pastor to observe the Lincoln Day Anniversary in February. As a result of the work of the Board we have 350,000 colored members, 3,500 churches and over 2,000 ministers. Our schools supply these with pastors and intelligent Christian leaders. For this purpose the 18 schools with their 320 teachers and 6,597 students must be maintained.)

The Board of Education For Negroes And The Centenary.

Any program of world conquest for the Kingdom of Christ must include one hundred millions of black people in Africa, and twelve millions more in the United States of America. If we cannot uplift and evangelize these black millions in the homeland, how shall we ever reach those across the seas. The school-house and the church go hand in hand in bringing the Negro in the United States to a knowledge of the Christian faith, and in fitting him that he may do his part in bringing the dark continent into a league of Christian nations dominated by the Christ spirit.

We recommend, therefore, that each pastor preach at least once a year on the outlook for the black man in the United States and in Africa, and the relation of the schools of the Board of Education for Negroes to his evangelization.

We further recommend that each pastor observe Lincoln Memorial Sunday, and use the program and literature furnished by the Board for that occasion.

We further recommend that this subject be also brought before our Sunday Schools, Epworth Leagues and social gatherings for study and prayerful considerations.

Respectfully submitted,
J. W. BRITTON.
T. B. McCLAIN.

COMMITTEE ON FINANCE.

We commend the service and ministry of our institutions located within our borders: namely, the Orphanage at Creal Springs; the Old Folks' Home at St. Francisville; the Holden Hospital, at Carbondale, and McKendree College, and urge that their representatives be given a hearty welcome to our pulpits. We also urge co-operation with the Anti-Saloon League in giving them access to the pulpits of our churches.

P. R. GLOTFELTY.
M. C. FOLTZ.

TEMPERANCE.

We rejoice in the past achievements and in the program of the Board of Temperance, Prohibition and Public Morals of our Church. It has been a leader of thought and a maker of successful plans. Independent in its thinking and planning, it occupies a unique place in the work of reform and has given ample proof of its value as a militant Christian power in the war against alcohol and kindred evils throughout the nation. It has always been ready to take the initiative, but has been careful not to outrun public sentiment, and has ever been ready to co-operate with all worthy temperance agencies. We are glad to give our confidence to its wise and aggressive tactics.

It inaugurated the Bone Dry regimen and made the new term popular and is now advocating the withdrawal of our flag and consular service from protection of those who do in other lands what has been outlawed in the United States.

We concur with the General Conference at Des Moines and "endorse the far-seeing plans of the Board in securing the most eligible site, just fronting the doors of the Capitol at Washington, for the erection of a large building commemorating the hundred year struggle which has resulted in national prohibition, and furnish a home for the Board of Temperance and all Methodist interests that center in Washington and be the headquarters of the Protestant and civic reform leaders who watch the currents of government and promote the reforms now throbbing for expression in the convictions of the people."

This work, started with the full endorsement of the General Conference, was hindered by the war and sidetracked by the Centenary Drive, but must now be completed by the generosity of those who believe that the importance of this reform work demands adequate equipment for its future conquests.

We urge every pastor to heartily participate in the plans of the Board to secure the balance of the funds necessary to finish its building enterprise.

We endorse the strict enforcement of National Prohibition including the elimination of beer and wine of any alcoholic per cent; the enthronement of the American Sabbath on its civic foundations; the Bible taught all our growing citizens in our public schools; Americanization insisted on, including the English language in our schools and newspapers; the maintenance of our American ideals of purity in the home life of both sexes; the enforcement of the Red Light Abatement Laws; the passage of the bill now pending in Congress suppressing race track gambling, its ticket issues and the transportation of its betting chances.

In view of the lowering of the moral standards and the loosening of certain national ideals following the war, we should look for a sunrise on Plymouth Rock by the revivifying of those ideals which our forefathers brought and planted in this new world and whose fruition is our Christian civilization, our National Government and our freedom.

J. D. SHADDRICK, Chairman.
O. E. CONNETT, Secretary.

SABBATH OBSERVANCE.

Whereas, God has given to man the Sabbath, that he may cease from this worldly care and go to the House of Worship, where he may reflect upon and enjoy the blessings God has given him through the past, and he in turn give to God his reverent and prayerful consideration in thought, and in song, in holy meditation, thereby renewing his spiritual, physical and mental strength;

Therefore, be it resolved, That we, the Southern Illinois Conference is opposed to all Sabbath desecration and everything that has a tendency to draw the young and old from the House of Worship.

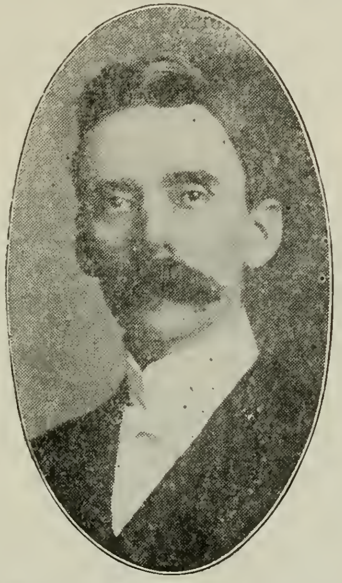
Memoirs.

REV. JOHN HENRY JONES.

John Henry Jones, son of John Henry and Jane Jerman Jones, was born in Birmingham, England, May 26th, 1860. He was born in a Methodist parsonage, his father being a minister in England for fifty years.

Brother Jones began to preach when sixteen years old. Serving as a supply on Sunday, working during the week and studying at nights.



On the 12th of February, 1881, he was united in marriage with Mary J. Poole; they came to America and settled at Murphysboro, Illinois, where he had relatives. Five children blessed this union, three dying in infancy. Two survive, Ernest A., of Superior, Nebraska, and John H., of Mason City, Iowa.

His wife died in 1891 while stationed at Grayville, Illinois.

In 1895, while serving Metropolis, he united in marriage with Mrs. Lillian Lukens, who survives him. Five children were born of this union, one, Basil H., died when thirteen months old; the four surviving children of this marriage are Mary Lillian, Mabel, Viola and Kenneth Lowell.

Brother Jones was admitted on trial in the Southern Illinois Conference in 1882, and in thirty-seven years of service he had never missed a Conference Roll-Call. He served the following charges: Grand Tower, Steeleville, Pinckneyville, Chester, Grayville, Metropolis, Flora, Litchfield, Nashville, Kinmundy, Pinckneyville, Harrisburg, Jerseyville, Altamont, McLeansboro, Belleville.

He had just closed a successful five years pastorate at Belleville, and on the fifth of October was appointed by Bishop Quayle to Eldorado. He went to Eldorado on the twelfth of October and filled the pulpit, and the following week moved his family there. He occupied the pulpit both morning and evening of October 19th, preaching to the delight of his new congregation. After the evening service he told his wife that he was suffering from indigestion; they called a physician and he administered medicine, and left directions for the night, but in less than thirty minutes Brother Jones had passed away. A kind husband and father, a faithful pastor and a true friend had passed to his reward. Brother Jones was a 32nd degree Mason, and for twenty-five years a member of the Independent Order Odd Fellows. The funeral was held in the Methodist Church at Metropolis, and his body lay in state before the altar where he had officiated as pastor, and where, twenty-four years before, he had been married. His District Superintendent, Rev. J. A. Taylor, directed the service, assisted by District Superintendents W. T. Morris and C. C. Hall, and pastors M. H. Loar, V. B. Sullins and C. D. Shumard, after which his body was laid to rest in the Masonic Cemetery at Metropolis to await the Resurrection Day.

REV. RALPH TRUMAN COPPAGE.

Ralph Truman Coppage, son of William and Florence Coppage, was born June 12, 1890. When nine years old he was converted and united with the Methodist Episcopal Church in the Graysville charge, Indiana Conference. At the age of nineteen he became conscious of a call to the ministry. He received license to preach and served as pastor at Alfordsville and Burns City, in the Indiana Conference.

He was admitted on trial to the Southern Illinois Conference at Murphysboro, Ill., in September, 1913, and appointed to Hagarstown, where he served three years. In 1916 he was appointed to Patoka and served there two years. In September, 1918, he was assigned to Allendale. Here he began the work with his usual earnestness, and served six months, when failing health prevented further work, so he retired to the home of his parents at Sullivan, Indiana. October 25, 1919, he went to his coronation. Patient and sweet spirit through all his suffering he now rests at home.

September 27, 1911, he was married to Miss Nora Page. Two sons came to bless their home, both of whom with their mother survive. He became a Christian in childhood—entered the ministry as a youth, preached the Gospel with great zeal and died a young man. Life is not measured by years. God's seal was upon his ministry.

REV. SYLVESTER SECHREST.

Sylvester Sechrest was born March 21, 1886. He was the son of William A. and Lurena C. Sechrest. When about sixteen years of age, he was converted and joined the Hopewell Church, on the Mt.

Vernon Circuit, during the pastorate of Rev. J. C. Kinison. Brother Sechrest was a faithful and earnest Christian, and feeling the call of God to the work of the ministry was licensed to preach. He spent one term in McKendree College during the presidency of Rev. John F. Harmon. He supplied one year and was received into the Southern Illinois Conference in 1915 at Mt. Vernon, Ill. He served the following charges: Crab Orchard, 1914-1917; Corinth, 1917-1918; Thompsonville, 1918; Dahlgren, 1919. Brother Sechrest was a faithful, devoted and spiritual pastor. He was in the midst of a great revival and was anxious that those who had been converted should join the church. He felt that the service in which they were to be received into the church was of such importance that he, against the advice of his physician, went to the church, though he had a high fever. Pneumonia set in and within forty-eight hours death had claimed him. His ministry to the people who were suffering with the influenza endeared him to his people.

He was married to Hazel A. Eller December 26, 1909. One son, Ewen Oren, came to bless and make happy the home. Beside the widow and son he leaves a father and mother, four sisters and four brothers to mourn his sudden departure.

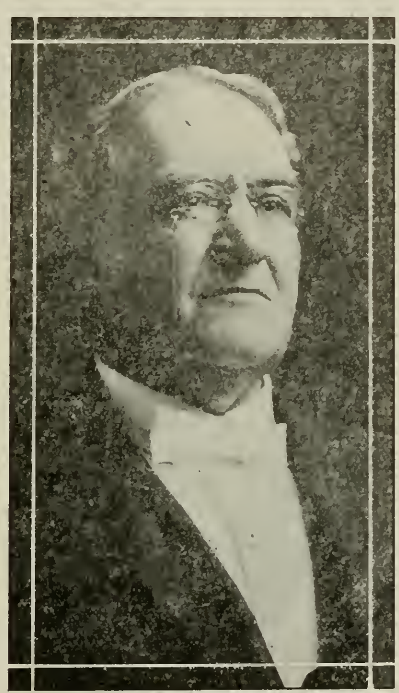
Brother Sechrest was a true soldier of the cross and died in the thick of the battle at Dahlgren, Illinois, February 2, 1920, at the early age of 33 years, 11 months and 11 days. A good man, a loyal citizen, a devoted Christian, and a faithful minister of the gospel has gone to his reward. We mourn not as those who have no hope but know we shall meet him in Heaven.

REV. T. DE WITT PEAKE, D. D.

Thomas De Witt Peake was born on a farm near Hamilton, O., March 19, 1841, and died at the home of his son, Elmore E. Peake, of La Grange, Ill., February 26, 1920. He was the son of William B. and Cynthia Flenner Peake, who represented the hardy pioneer stock who so largely peopled the middle west in the nineteenth century. His father was a local preacher and a man of great piety. This may account in part for his early interest in the Bible and things religious. His educational opportunities were slight. He attended the pubic school so far as farm duties would permit, and at the age of about twenty years spent short time in the seminary at Hartsville, Ind. This was the extent of his school education. But while he did not complete any formal course of study in any institution, he had the instincts of a scholar and his short experience in school gave him an inspiration to study which never left him, but led him fianlly into high attainments in the lines of general scholarship and especially in the field of his chosen profession. He accumluated a large library, rich in the best literature in the lines which claimed so much of his attention.

He first planned to enter the legal profession, but when he was about ready to take up that work, the call to the ministry came to him with such force as to prevail over all other human interests and he was licensed to preach in 1869 and joined the Cincinnati Conference the same year. In 1882 he transferred to the Ohio Conference, where he served four years in two important churches at Portsmouth and Pomeroy. In 1886, on account of his health, he transferred to the Wisconsin Conference. During his years in this field he served the following charges in the order named: Janes-ville, Merrill, Beaver Dam, Beloit and Lake Geneva. As he advanced in years the Wisconsin climate seemed too severe and in 1901 he transferred to the Southern Illinois Conference, where he served the following charges: Salem, Fairfield, Litchfield, Lebanon and Bone Gap. Failing health made it seem prudent for him to retire in 1916. While pastor at Lebanon, the seat of McKendree College, his preaching was an inspiration to both faculty and students. He served six years as a member of the joint board of trustees and visitors of the college.

He married Lida Jane Vail, of Hamilton, Ohio, April 20, 1870. She shared the itinerancy with him till the end of his life—almost fifty years. Of their children three ae living—Elmore Elliott, of La Grange, Ill.; Quesnel De Witt, of Chicago; and Mrs. Rudolph E. Krebs, of Fort Atkinson, Wis.



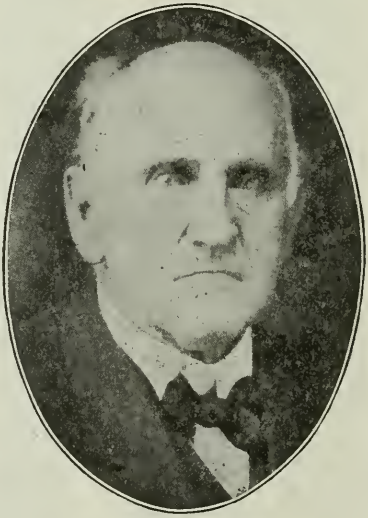
Dr. Peake was known in the Southern Illinois Conference for his high scholarship and superior preaching ability. He was also at home on the lecture platform, where his mature thought and scholarly diction appeared to good advantage. One series of lectures was published in a volume entitled, "The Symbolism of Solomon's Temple." He was not only an efficient preacher and pastor, but also a noble character, an affectionate husband and father, a useful friend, a loyal citizen, faithful helper to his fellow man and a true servant of God. His earthly task is finished, but his influence still lives and will live forever.

REV. CHARLES WESLEY SABINE.

Charles Wesley, son of Dr. Charles and Diana Sabine, was born at Fletcher, Ohio, June 6, 1837. At the age of four years he and his brother were left fatherless, with the mother in straightened circumstances, and when but 13 he started out to make his own way in the world.

He tells us that after leaving home he became "wild", but his mother was a woman who never let go her hold on the Heavenly Father, and in his 16th year Charles was soundly converted. By teaching school he paid his way through two years in the Ohio Wesleyan University, and then responded to President Lincoln's call for troops. After serving three months he was rejected from further enlistment because of weak lungs.

In 1863 he was married to Miss Myra Wingate, of Columbus, O. To this uion were born three children, two of whom survive.



Brother Sabine came to Illinois in 1865, and again engaged in teaching school. While thus employed in White county, he took an active interest in a revival that was being carried on in the neighborhood. The pastor suddenly became ill and the meeting was left in Brother Sabine's hands. A successful revival followed. It was then he felt his call to preach, and in obedience to divine summons, he was admitted on trial in the Southern Illinois Conference in 1868. His young wife shared his itinerant life for seven years and then passed to her eternal reward.

In 1876 Brother Sabine was married to Miss Rebecca McClure, of Sumner, Ill., and together they shared for over 43 years the labors and the joys of a Methodist preacher's life. There were born to this union four children.

Brother Sabine was a faithful minister of Jesus Christ. He loved the work, he loved to preach, he loved to lead souls to Jesus Christ. He was intensely evangelistic, and had revivals wherever he went.

He waged relentless warfare against the liquor traffic, and rejoiced that he was permitted to see the saloon go down in defeat.

His appointments were: 1868-9, Phillipstown; 1870, Equality; 1871-2, Fairfield Circuit; 1873, Louisville; 1874-5, Olney; 1876-7, Sumner; 1878-9, Albion; 1880-1, Bridegport; 1882-3, Alton; 1884-5, Collinsville; 1886-7, McLeansboro; 1888-9, Equality; 1890-2, Newton; 1893-5, Bone Gap; 1896-7, Anna; 1898-1901, Murphysboro; 1902-3, Lawrenceville; 1904-5, Marissa; 1906-7, Centenary Church, East St. Louis. While in this last named pastorate, he suffered a stroke of paralysis from which he never fully recovered. In 1908 he took the retired relation and moved to Murphysboro, where during the subsequent years he was a stay to his pastors and a benediction to the church.

He passed peacefully away Monday evening March 1, 1920. His funeral was conducted at Murphysboro, Ill., where he was also laid to rest to await his Resurrection. He is survived by a sorrowing companion, six children and a host of friends, whose lives were enriched by his ministry. He has gone to receive his crown, and "his works do follow" him.

REV. WILLIAM JOHN HOPPER.

Rev. William John Hopper was born in Ford county, Illinois, January 20, 1863. His earthly career was closed in Mt. Vernon, Ill., May 13, 1920. He had lived 57 years, 4 months and 3 days.

In 1865 the family came to Fayette county; thence to Marion county, 1886. November 9, 1884, he was married to Miss Rosella John. To them were born five children. He was converted March, 1875, and became a member of the M. E. Church in Kinmundy, Ill. He received license to preach from the hand of Dr. John Leeper, by order of the Vandalia District Conference, held in Salem, Illinois, in April, 1886. The same year he served as supply pastor in the New Burnside charge. At the session of the Southern Illinois Conference held in Olney, September, 1887, he was admitted on trial. After which he served the following charges: 1887, New Burnside; 1888, Dahlgren; 1889-90, Eddyville; 1891-2-3, McLeansboro Circuit; 1894-5, Maunie; 1896-7, Crossville; 1898-9, 1900-1, Norris City. He then held the supernumerary relation till 1906, when he was appointed to Broughton. Also 1907-8 to the same charge; Norris City, 1909; McLeansboro Circuit, 1910; Mill Shoals, 1911; Mt. Vernon Circuit, 1912-13-14-15; Browns, 1916-17; Mt. Vernon Epworth, 1918-19.

Brother Hopper was a practical gospel preacher, and was a quiet, unassuming man. He was always forgetful of self, seeking to be of service to others. He went cheerfully to and served efficiently on every charge given him. Many gracious revivals were among the fruits of his ministry. Every charge he served felt the uplift of his strong Christian character. For 21 years he served as Conference postmaster. The duties of this office received the same faithful attention which characterized all his work. He was the author of many short poems, one of which was being sold for the benefit of the Conference claimants, at the time of his death nearly $100 had been realized from this source.

He will be greatly missed in the Conference.

REV. JONATHAN B. RAVENSCROFT.

Jonathan B. Ravenscroft was born in Longton, Staffordshire, England, March 19, 1836. He came to America with his parents and located at Rockport, Indiana, where his father was the pastor of the local M. E. church for many years.

As a boy he attended the country and village schools in the neighborhood of Rockport, in Southern Indiana, until about 14 years of age, after which time he made his own way through the school of life.

At the age of about 23 he was married to Miss Louisa A. Clifford, who was the daughter of Rev. Z. S. Clifford, a pioneer circuit rider, who died in New Haven, Ill., in 1872. He entered the ministry in 1867 and was assigned to the Moccasin circuit, a part of which was in Fayette and part in Effingham counties. Two years later, 1869, he came to the Albion circuit. He served also the following charges: Mt. Vernon, two years; Mt. Erie, three years; Olney, two years; Clay City, one year; Albion, the second time (1880), two years; Flora, three years; Salem, two years; Mt. Carmel District, as presiding elder, six years, beginning 1887; Fairfield, three years; Centralia, three years; Greenville, two years; Altamont (1901), two years; Kane, six years; and Brighton, three years. At the Conference which convened in Cairo in 1912 he accepted the "retired relation" in the Conference, and moved to Albion, where he has been dearly loved by all.

His first wife died May 4, 1877, leaving Brother Ravenscroft with nine children. November 30, 1879, he and Anna Seely were married. One son, Charles, was born to them. They lived together and served faithfully and unselfishly the interests of their Master's kingdom until after his retirement. She died at 10:30 p. m., Thursday, Jan. 4, 1917, and he died 10:25 p. m., Thursday, August 5, 1920.

He loved his home and his children. He loved his church and his country. For more than fifty years he held aloft the torch light of the gospel of the Son of God. He lived a beautiful life. He was wonderfully gifted in prayer. He was eloquent and forceful in the pulpit. He sang exultantly the hymns of the church. He, with others of his kind, on the big circuits and in the great revivals of their day, have laid broad and deep the foundations of Methodism in Southern Illinois.

The gospel he preached and lived through the years became his support and comfort when his health failed. His fine appreciation of kindnesses and efforts to make him comfortable, his testimonies, prayers and amens sanctified and made sacred almost the room where he lay. His last words were "Jesus, Jesus. Amen,. amen." A tower of strength has fallen. Yet he lives. How beautiful upon the mountains are the feet of him that bringeth good tidings, that publisheth peace; that bringeth good tidings of good, that publisheth salvation; that saith unto Zion, Thy God reigneth.

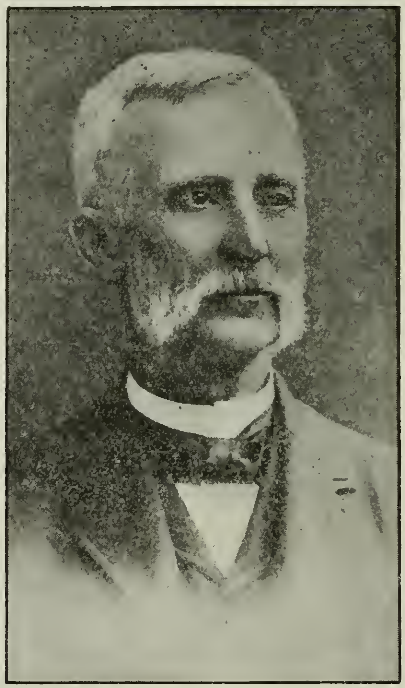
REV. JAMES P. DEW.

James P. Dew was born in Hampshire county, Virginia, on May 8th, 1836, his parents moving when he was about nine years old to Nashville, Indiana, where he grew to manhood. He was clearly converted shortly before he was nineteen years of age, and united with the Mt. Zion Methodist Episcopal Church on the Nashville District.

Brother Dew often testified in after years, that from a child he had felt that if he ever became a Christian he would have to preach; which is verified by the fact that he was licensed to exhort in 1856, less than two years after his conversion.

During the following two years he was called upon to assist in many revival services, and on September 6th, 1858, he was licensed to preach. One year later he was recommended for admission to the Indiana Conference and was so received, Bishop Levi Scott being the presiding Bishop. Two years later he was ordained deacon by Bishop Simpson.

He wrought as pastor and presiding elder in Indiana and Illinois; in Denver, Colorado and in Missouri.



In the days when doctrinal debates were a part of the task of denominational leaders, he was a champion of Arminian doctrines with a state-wide reputation. In the times when the temperance question demanded immense courage for its support he was a fearless crusader for total abstinence. He was always outspoken against slavery in times and places where opposition to slavery might mean personal disaster.

Some years ago his voice failed him as a preacher and he was forced to go into secular business, achieving marked success as the head of an insurance agency. At the same time he never failed to render service to his brethren in the pastorate. He was an evangelist of old-fashioned severity and tenderness in appeal, He was a singer of no small ability. To hear him sing "The Land of the Leal," with the passionate confidence of a Christian glowing in his eyes was to be brought close to the certitude of immortality.

He served his generation long and faithfully and his works do follow him.

In 1861 he was united in marriage with Miss Martha E. Griffeth, of Elizabeth, Indiana, who through all the arduous years of his pastorates was his companion true and helpful.

After a long period of gradual decline he fell on sleep, in the morning of August 16th, 1920, and was laid to rest in Mt. Washington cemetery, Kansas City, Mo., where his body, wearied by the toils of more than sixty years in the Christian ministry, waits the resurrection of the just.

REV. CHARLES R. PHILLIPS.

Charles R. Phillips, son of Joseph and Elizabeth Phillips, was born near Mt. Vernon, Ill., March 4th, 1861. He was the fifth in a family of nine children. Four brothers and four sisters survive him. He obtained his education from the common schools of Jefferson county and at Valparaiso, Indiana. He followed the profession of school teaching for thirteen years. He was united in marriage to Miss Minnie M. Blair August 9, 1893, by Rev. W. A. Browder. Miss Blair was also one of a family of nine children of Wm. and Mary Blair, of Jefferson county.

To Charles R. Phillips and wife were born four children: Paul B. Phillips, of East St. Louis, Ill.; Mrs. Ruth Gulley, of Champaign, Ill.; Charles Harmon and Elizabeth May, of Herrin, Ill.

Brother Phillips' health began to fail about two years ago. He however continued his work as a pastor until about five weeks previous to his death, when he became confined to his room. Here, with patience and Christian fortitude, he endured his affliction and weakness with no complaint. He was cheerful and hopeful until the end.

Brother Phillips was received on trial in the Southern Illinois Conference at Fairfield, Ill., September, 1902, by Bishop John H. Vincent. He was sent to Bellmont. Here he served for four years. In the fall of 1906, at the Conference held at Vandalia, Brother Phillips was sent to Eldorado; here he served for four years. He next served at Metropolis from 1910-1914, four years. In the fall of 1914 he was sent to Oblong; here he served for two years. At the Conference held at Marion, Ill., Brother Phillips was appointed to the Herrin station, where he served three years. He was in the closing of the third year when he passed to his home on High.

Brother Phillips was a popular preacher and pastor. He was a man of clean lips and pure mind. He did a great work at Herrin. He was much loved and respected by all. He passed away Thursday, August 25th, 1920, at the parsonage home in Herrin. The funeral services were held at Mt. Vernon, Ill., at 2 p. m., Friday, August 27th. The services were conducted by Rev. W. T. Morris, District Superintendent, Carbondale District, assisted by a number of members of the Conference.

MRS. C. B. BESSE.

Cordelia Snow Sparrow was born at Pemaquid, Maine, May 1, 1848, and died at Orange, New Jersey, October 13, 1919, aged 71 years, 5 months and 12 days. She was the only child of Captain Isaac C. and Mary A. Sparrow, both members of the M. E. church. She was converted at New Harbor, Maine, in a revival service conducted by her future Husband in 1867, the first year of his ministry; and was married to him June 25, 1868.

She became the mother of eight children, four of whom preceded her into "the home over there" Four daughters remain: Mrs. Merte E. West, Orange, N. J.; Mrs. Beulah F. Sheridan, Atlantic City, N. J.; Mrs. Nelle K. Patrick, Orange, N. J.; and Mrs. Charles H. Parsons, West Orange, N. J.

Seven grandchildren, besides their parents and her husband, are among the bereaved. Mrs. Besse was a most faithful wife and mother, and was dearly beloved in all the circle of her acquaintance. She was a patient, uncomplaining, smiling paralytic for nearly four years; and then suddenly passed on and upward.

She was interred in the cemetery at Orrington, Maine, by the side of two children previously departed. At her going one of the daughters said: "I never heard mother utter a cross word." This blessed memory echoes in all our hearts.

MRS. MARY E. LOCKE.

Mary Ellen Chadwick, daughter of David and Sarah (Brooks) Chadwick, was born in Licking county, Ohio, February 3, 1836, and died at her home in Lebanon, Illinois, October 30, 1919. In childhood she moved with her parents to Massac county, Illinois, where she grew to womanhood. She was married June 3, 1857, to Rev. William C. Huggins, of the Southern Illinois Conference. To them were born two children. The elder, Mary Ellen, died in infancy. The younger, William C. Huggins, Jr., died at the age of nineteen. Her husband died February 6, 1863, while pastor of the Equality Circuit. After four years of widowhood she was married a second time to Rev. John H. Hill, also a member of the Southern Illinois Conference. With him she spent ten years in the itinerancy and the same number in the retired relation, living in Lebanon, where he died August 16, 1889. Three years later she was married again to the Rev. John W. Locke. With him she spent three years in the pastorate, one at Flora and two at Lebanon, where Dr. Locke established his home when he retired from active service in the fall of 1895. He died before the end of the year and left Mrs. Locke a widow for the third time. She spent the remaining twenty-four years of her life at her home in Lebanon, leading a quiet but useful life. She was deeply pious as well as practical in her religion; ever devoted to the interests of the church and the various organizations connected with it. She was a good neighbor, a faithful friend, and a genuine Christian.

MRS. T. A. MARTIN.

The beloved wife of Rev. T. A. Martin, pastor of the First Methodist Episcopal Church of Kinmundy, Ill., passed to her eternal home on the morning of January 14, 1920, from Holden Hospital, after a major operation for gall-stones. Mrs. Martin, nee Elsie Pearl Batson, was born March 13, 1893. She was married to Rev. Martin November 30, 1911. Two beautiful children came to bless the home, Demova, age 7, and Robert, age 3. While Mrs. Martin's health was never the best, she endured affliction as a good soldier for Jesus Christ, going on with many and varied duties as if all was well with her. She measured up to a very high standard of parsonage efficiency, especially so for a young wife and mother. Making the interior of the parsonage by her skill, neatness, kindness, gentleness and godliness much more attractive and congenial than the exterior. Whoever entered her home could not but feel blest in the cordial welcome extended. She was converted at the age of twelve and united with the Grace M. E. Church, Carbondale, Ill., and ever remained a faithful, consistent, loyal Christian. Her departure in the early morning of a certain day is fittingly coincident with her going in the forenoon of her day of life. She was a wife worthy of the name, a mother of the best type, a friend none more true, living the Christian life in such a straight-forward way that none however exacting could but admire. The funeral service was held from First M. E. Church, Carbondale, Ill., conducted by the pastor, Rev. A. C. Geyer, and Rev. Ressho Robertson, and assisted by Dr. C. C. Hall, Rev. J. S. Cummins, Rev. W. R. Bradley, C. R. Yost, L. M. Leyerle, J. W. McNeill and J. H. Smith. Mrs. Martin was a sister to the Rev. B. H. Batson, a former member of the Southern Illinois Conference.

MRS. S. S SMITH.

Miss Carrie P. Goth born August 6, 1874, in Hamilton County, Illinois. She was united in marriage to Rev. S. S. Smith at Norris City, Ill., Oct. 2, 1894. She died at Menard, Ill., April 12, 1920.

The funeral services were held at Big Prairie, or Epworth, Church, April 16. Services were conducted by W. T. Morris, District Superintendent of Carbondale District.

Mrs. Smith was a devoted wife and mother and an indefatigable worker. Her devotion to her large family was a delight to all who knew her. The funeral was largely attended by many relatives and former friends. She will be missed by many, but by none more than her family. She was a devoted Christian woman.

Rev. S. S. Smith, her husband, was chaplain of the Southern Illinois Penitentiary.

MRS. RUTH FRANKLIN.

Ruth Taylor was born in Crittenden county, Kentucky, February 28th, 1838, and departed this life in Pinckneyville, Illinois, April 24th, 1920, aged 82 years, 1 month, and 28 days. She was united in marriage to J. W. Franklin, March 31st, 1859.

Soon after their marriage Brother Franklin enlisted in Battery K of the First Illinois Light Artillery of the Civil War, and for more than two years he endured the hardships of an army life.

During this time Sister Franklin remained at her home in Johnson county, Illinois. In about 1870, they left Illinois and removed to Kentucky, where Brother Franklin was licensed to preach in the Methodist Episcopal Church in 1869.

She with her husband served the following charges in Kentucky: Logan, Hopkinsville, Madisonville, Greenville and Milburn.

In 1882 they removed back to Illinois and served the following charges in the Southern Illinois Conference: Harrisburg, Opdyke, Benton, Tamaroa, Elkville, Pinckneyville and Godfrey.

Mrs. Franklin was converted in her early girlhood days and united with the Methodist Episcopal Church, in which faith she lived a true, devoted Christian life for more than three-fourths of a century. Sister Franklin had charge of the primary work in the M. E. Sunday School for many years. She loved her church, and it can truthfully be said of Sister Franklin, when it came to the Master's business, she was found ever faithful and true.

Eight weeks ago she suffered a light stroke of paralysis, from which she never fully recovered. Kind friends and loving hands did all they could to bring her back to her normal health, but all in vain. The good Lord, who watches over all, said: "Well done, thou good and faithful servant, come home and enjoy the riches of a heavenly home." She leaves in this world two sisters and a host of friends to mourn their loss.

MEMORIAL GIFTS.

The Southern Illinois Conference adopted a resolution providing for the publication of a memorial list to be a part of its records, the names of those who by legacies, memorials, and gifts of $1,000 or more who have manifested their love and high esteem for the beneficiaries we serve. The Conference is entering upon a campaign to raise a Permanent Fund of $200,000, the interest of which is to provide a more adequate support for the retired preachers, their widows and dependent children of the Southern Illinois Conference.

Those interested in any way in this great movement should write F. M. Van Treese, corresponding secretary Endowment Commission Southern Illinois Conference, 730 Veronica Avenue, East St. Louis, Illinois.

Standing Rules of Conference

I. When any member of the Conference intends to object to the passage of the character of any member, he shall hand the name of such member to the President, who shall pass the name by and direct the case to be investigated.

II. When any one of our members is called from earth, it shall be the duty of the nearest pastor or District Superintendent of the district to notify all the preachers in the district of such death, and of the time set for the funeral services.

III. At each session of Conference a publisher shall be elected to publish the minutes of the next session, who shall be authorized to make arrangements and enter into a contract for the publication in advance of the session.

IV. The District Superintendent of the district, and the preacher in charge of the station where the Conference is to be held, together with the presidents of the several Conference societies, are instructed to arrange the program of religious exercises, and if practicable, secure their publication in the Central Christian Advocate.

V. The Board of Stewards shall consist of six members of the Conference, each of whom shall serve three years, two being elected at each session of the Conference. The Conference may, at its discretion, add two laymen, to be elected annually. The Board shall organize each year by electing a president, secretary and treasurer, whose names shall be published in the Conference minutes.

VI. When the names of candidates for admission, on trial or for orders, are called, they shall, if present, be called forward and introduced to the Conference.

VII. All candidates for recognition of orders shall, unless excused by vote of the Conference, be examined in the same manner as candidates for ordination, and the Committee on Conference Relation shall inquire into the character and fitness for the traveling connection of each candidate for admission on trial, for admission into full connection, or for readmission into the Conference, and all persons desiring a change of relation or any special appointment.

VIII. There shall be a meeting of the Statistical Secretaries with the Conference Treasurer at eight o'clock on Saturday morning, for the purpose of comparing the money reported in the statistical tables.

IX. When a member of the Annual Conference dies, the Conference shall appropriate one hundred dollars to provide a monument for him. The Conference to elect annually a custodian of Monument Fund, who shall apportion the amount necessary to this fund to the several charges on the basis of the amount paid by the charge for pastoral support the previous year. The pastor to report this under the head of other collections. The publisher of the minutes shall reserve a column in the statistical tables for this report.

X. Each District Superintendent, at the close of the term, shall prepare a report of his district, not to exceed one thousand words, for publication in the minutes.

XI. The Stewards are authorized to take annually from the pro rata due the claimants from the Book Concern, a sum according to their discretion, not to exceed ten per cent of their indebtedness to the Book Concern, until it shall be paid in full.

XII. All reports of committees and resolutions shall be handed to the Secretary in duplicate.

XIII. No person shall have his orders recognized who comes from a church that requires a lower standard of literary qualification than the Methodist Episcopal Church, without passing an examination with us.

XIV. To admit on trial any candidate who is over thirty-five years of age, it shall require a two-thirds vote of all members present and voting, provided the two-thirds equal a majority of all members of the Conference.

XV. All charges entertaining the Annual Conference shall provide lodging and breakfast only, leaving the attendants to provide for the mid-day and evening meals. Provided, this does not apply to superanuated members, their wives, the widows of deceased ministers, deaconesses and guests officially invited, who shall have full entertainment. The Committee on Entertainment shall see that sufficient and wholesome meals shall be provided at reasonable rates.

XVI. All members of the Conference under appointment as Conference Evangelists shall, on the call of their names for passage of character, report their work for the past year, stating number and place of revival meetings held, number professed conversions and accessions to membership of the church.

XVII. All reports from the charges not received by Thursday evening of Conference week will not appear in the published minutes of the Conference.

XVIII. On the first day of the Conference, at the hour following the Communion Service, a memorial shall be held for the ministers and ministers' wives who have died during the year. The Bishop shall appoint someone to deliver the address, and also an alternate.

XIX. The Secretary of this Conference and the publisher of the minutes shall edit the minutes each year before printing same. The printed minutes of the Conference shall be the official journal of the Conference. The publishers of the minutes shall send one copy of each year's minutes by mail free to each retired minister of the Conference and to each widow of deceased ministers of the Conference.

XX. Each pastor shall collect or pay a minute fund equal to one-third of one per cent of his cash salary, and shall be entitled to one copy of the minutes for each one hundred dollars of cash salary. The District Superintendents shall receive nine copies each and pay three dollars for the same.

XXI. It shall require two-thirds of those present and voting to change or suspend any of these rules, except rule fourteen, which has its own provision.

Welch's

"THE NATIONAL DRINK"

ORIGINALLY made as unfermented wine for the Sacrament, Welch's is just the pure juice of choicest grapes. Nothing added and nothing taken away.

Now, it is a drink of health—of joy. Everybody likes it. Many people enjoy it straight—but it may be diluted with plain or charged water or blended with lemonade and other beverages. Serve cold. Get Welch's at the fountain—and in bottles from grocer or druggist. Write for booklet "Welch Ways."

Welch's Grapelade

a pure grape spread

Another Welch Quality grape product—a new delicacy for the American table. It is all the richness of whole, ripe, luscious grapes. Seeds, skins, and acid crystals are removed—and nothing but pure sugar is added.

Smooth, tart-sweet, and pure, it is fine as a spread for bread, toast, or muffins and may be used in many other delightful ways. Write for a folder of tested recipes.

Grapelade is sold in 15 oz. glass jars and in 8 oz. tumblers.

PASTORAL ADDRESS

To the Pastors and Members of the Southern Illinois Conference

GREETINGS:—

We, your fellow laborers rejoice greatly, both in the marvelous success that has attended your labors of love, and in the glorious triumphs that have been achieved by our Zion during the past year.

In order that the Kingdom may be brought apace and hastened in its arrival, we exhort first that the proper attitude be taken by the church toward the problems of our day.

The world is struggling to rebuild for itself, after the welter of war, a new life.

In this reconstruction period we meet many difficulties. The back wash of the great war has carried with it economic depression, unemployment, famine, crime, anarchy, industrial war, international jealousy and strife.

The church must not be indifferent; to sit supinely and rejoice that we are secure within the cleft of the Rock of Ages, while the whole world battles with the storm, is high treason to our Christian trust. Neither must we take the attitude of the premillennialists who gloat over these evils as proof positive that their theory of a catastrophic end of this world is at hand. Such an attitude as that is a travesty on the spirit of Christ who wept over the decadence of Jerusalem.

We Methodists believe in the free moral agency of man and not in fatalism. A field of ripened, falling, rotting grain is not a challenge to Methodism for a torch and holocaust but for keen sickles and efficient reapers.

Therefore, in view of the startling statistics that 35000 protestant pulpits are vacant, that both home and foreign mission fields are calling for workers, both lay and clerical, we exhort Methodist parents to pray the "Lord of the Harvest" to send forth laborers into the harvest and set to work to help the Lord answer their prayers, by themselves dedicating their children to Him for service.

"Finally brethren be strong in the Lord and in the power of his might." "Put on the whole armour of God." "Quit you like men." "Be Strong!"

"Now unto Him that is able to keep you from falling, and to present you faultless before the throne of God, be honor and glory and dominion, as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end." Amen.

W. I. TERHUNE,
C. L. PETERSON.

RESOLUTIONS.

It is frequently stated that the Annual Conference brings benefit and some blessings to the city and to the church that entertains it. We trust that this is true. However that may be we are sure that the Conference itself is under obligations for many benefits that it receives, Therefore be it

RESOLVED, That we express our sincere gratitude to all those who by their labors and devotion have made our visit here so pleasant and profitable.

To Bishop Joseph F. Berry for his heartening messages and brotherly spirit in presiding, so appealing to us that we would receive with delight his return.

To Dr. Harris Franklin Rall for the inspiration and mental stimulation of his Christian and scholarly addresses. His return is desired:

To the pastor, the Rev. M. C. Foltz and his people and those of the city who by their painstaking care and generous hospitality have contributed so largely to our material and social pleasure and comfort in this visit:

To the Secretaries and other official staffs who in self-forgetfulness have labored that the business interests of the Conference be properly cared for.

J. H. DAVIS, Chairman,
O. B. KINSEY, Secretary.

Mt. Vernon, Illinois, September 26, 1921.

The District Superintendents desire to present the following resolutions:

First—We hereby extend our thanks and express the deep gratitude of our hearts to the Board of Bishops for assigning the Rev. Bishop Joseph F. Berry, D.D., L.L.D., our senior chief pastor to preside at this session of our Conference.

Bishop Berry has endeared himself to us by his wise counsel—his tender dealings with all who sought to see him—his continued beaming countenance, the complete absence of irritation on his part.

The grace that has characterized his presidency of this conference, his brotherliness to ministers and laymen, the great and inspiring morning addresses, and the wonderful eloquent soul stirring gospel sermon on Sunday have all combined to win our hearts completely.

In this way we desire to express to Bishop Berry our great love and deep appreciation of his presence and presidency of this conference and voice the deep desire of our hearts that he may again be appointed to preside over the Southern Illinois Conference.

Second—While we were grieved because of the suffering during the year of our Resident Bishop, who for a time was confined in the hospital in St. Joseph, Mo., we are rejoicing that he is now able for full duty and service. We hereby express our love and esteem for Bishop Quayle, our great radiant, joyous wonderful leader and Apostle of our Lord, and pledge to him our loyalty and willingness to serve with him for the advancement of the area and the glory of God. We pray God's blessings to continue to rest upon him and keep him in health and give success to all his plans.

EPWORTH LEAGUE

We rejoice for the word that comes through the District Superintendents of increased interest in the Epworth League and its work. It is our sincere conviction that neglect at this point, today, means disaster to the Church of tomorrow.

Therefore we recommend,

1.That careful attention to the Leagues be given by the pastors and by the Superintendents, in their visits, encouraging them and planning with them to put over the League Program.

2. That pastors be diligent in the promotion of the Junior Epworth League as the Children's Training Classes for church membership.

3. That the McKendree Institute be recognized as our Official Institute and that Superintendents and Pastors all co-operate to secure an attendance of the young people from every church in the Conference, and especially where no League exists that young people be sent by the church to obtain vision and equipment for the conduct of the same.

4. That the Conference Board of Epworth Leagues consist of a Conference President to be nominated by the Committee on Epworth Leagues and elected by the Conference; the Presidents of the respective districts, and the District Superintendents, ex-officio. These to co-relate the work of the Conference; to arrange the anniversary each year at Conference; and to have oversight of such other things as may be of common interest.

5. That Rev. F. O. Wilson be elected Conference President for the ensuing year.

C. L. PETERSON,
P. R. GLOTFELTY.

REPORT OF CORRESPONDING SECRETARY OF THE CONFERENCE CLAIMANTS ENDOWMENT SOCIETY OF THE SOUTHERN ILLINOIS CONFERENCE.

Dear Fathers and Brethren:—

At the Conference held in Mt. Vernon in 1915, Bishop Thirkield, presiding. A commission of ministers and prominent laymen of the Conference were appointed to conduct an intensive campaign for a permanent endowment fund, the interest of which was to take better care of our Retired Ministers, their wives and the widows of deceased preachers with their dependents.

Soon after conference the Commission began holding conventions in every district prepared and distributed literature.

Collections were not taken for the fund until February, 1916.

This method of taking pledges continued throughout the six years, until $80,000 in pledges were secured.

Some of the results of this campaign up to date are as follows:

Of the $80,000 pledged we have collected from pledges and special gifts $52,044. We have issued Life Annunity Bonds for $57,000. There has been paid to the Endowment Fund in cash from bequests $4,292, until we have $113,000 in cash in treasury in interest bearing funds.

We have uncollected individual pledges $9,756 and pledges from Quarterly Conferences, Offical Boards and other organizations of the church $16,202. Total uncollected pledges, $25,916.

Assets of the Conference Claimants Society are as follows:

Cash in Treasury	$113,000
Uncollected pledges	25,960
Ruth Franklin Estate, due Jan'y. 1, 1922	3,500
Geneve Marshall, will carried in probate	2,000
The Sarah J. Snell Memorial Fund	2,500
The House and Lot in Olney	1,500
Total assets	$145,460

We have had the hearty co-operation from Bishop Quayle, all the District Superntendents, gifted Laymen and other Pastors.

We started out to raise $100,000 the next year the goal was made $200,000. We have more than reached our first objective, but we need even more than the $200,000. We have some encouraging prospects for the future. We have several wills reported written by laymen in favor of the Endowment Fund. Two large estates have this year been written in favor of our great cause. One for $20,000, the other for from $75 to $100,000.

If I am continued as Corresponding Secretary, I earnestly request your cooperation in collecting the remainder of the uncollected pledges especially those made by organizations. I would request that you send me names of prospective givers both in cash or other pledges, Life Annuity Bonds or those you think ought to make wills in favor of our great cause.

Respectfully submitted,
F. M. VAN TREESE, Corresponding Secretary.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF MANAGERS of the ORPHANS' AND CHILDRENS' HOME OF THE SOUTHERN ILLINOIS CONFERENCE OF THE METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH.

The Conference year now closing has, in many respects, been the most prosperous in the history of the Institution. On the other hand it has been one fraught with much anxiety.

In February of this year, fire destroyed one of our buildings, known as the Kirk Cottage, a house of nine rooms with basement and heating plant, together with all contents, entailing a loss of about seven thousand dollars. This loss was partially covered by insurance which was satisfactorily adjusted. When this building was burned we were so crowded for room that a number of the children had to be sent away and we were, therefore, unable to care for as many as we have in former years.

When the news of the fire became known over the Conference people very generously responded to the needs with gifts of cash, clothing and provisions, and the citizens of Creal Springs kindly assisted in caring for the children until we could make other provisions for them.

When the matter of rebuilding came up there came suggestions from all over the Conference that this was the logical time to relocate the Institution in some more centrally located city and one which could be reached with less difficulty.

The Board of Managers spent much time and thought over the several propositions that were presented by the representatives of the cities that were inviting the Institution to locate with them, and it was only after much deliberation and investigation by a special committee that Mount Vernon was chosen as the city in which to locate.

Our new Home consists of twenty-five acres of land, a large brick residence on paved street, fine grove of forest trees, plenty of good water and is in within easy reach of school and church. This property was purchased for the sum of twelve thousand dollars, $5,000.00 of the amount being donated by the Chamber of Commerce of the city of Mount Vernon and $1,000.00 by Dr. Earl Green and Judge W. H. Green, making the net cost to the Conference six thousand dollars.

The Board of Managers feel that in the purchase of this property the foundation has been laid for a great work for homeless children of Southern Illinois and that the near future will find the Southern Illinois Conference, with a plant second to none in this part of the state. That this may be accomplished, we recommend that the Conference Board of Trustees be requested to accept membership in the Board of Hospitals and Homes of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

The Board is deeply appreciative of the efficient service rendered by Superintendent J. Y. Reid, and Matron Mulford, as well as the entire force of helpers.

The auditing committee has reported that the books and records of the Superintendent and Treasurer have been audited and that they are correct in every detail.

The Superintendent's report shows that a total of seventy-five children have been cared for during the year.

The Treasurer's report is as follows:

Balance on hand Sept. 1, 1920	$ 4,977.89
Received from all sources	23,748.74
Total	$28,726.63
Disbursements	18,983.43
Balance on hand September 1, 1921	$ 9,743.20

Therefore, be it Resolved, that we the District Superintendents and pastors of these charges, propose to these women a united endeavor to add not less than fifteen new auxiliaries in each district and to double the membership in every present society, and pledge our heartiest co-operation.

COMMITTEE ON HOME MISSIONS AND CHURCH EXTENSION.

Your committee presents the following report:—

First:—We strongly commend the Board on its splendid administration and call the attention of the business world to the fact that the entire overhead expense for the year just closed was less than 4% of the moneys received. We urge the thorough publication of this fact throughout the Conference.

Second:—In view of the fact that the Board aided more than eighty preachers of our Conference last year, we urge the loyal support of all our pastors to the Centenary, making it clear to all our laymen that the Board has planned to aid in the support of eighty pastors, a woman worker and a language pastor in the Southern Illinois Conference this year. Also that several rural pastors were aided in attending the Board of Home Missions summer schools at McKendree College last summer. Further, that by centenary aid four new churches have been organized and supplied with pastors. All of which commends the Centenary to the business sense of the church and challenges us to renewed and deeper fidelity to its program.

Third:—It is the faithfully executed plan of the Centenary Board that all appropriations made to projects in the Conference are approved by the Conference Board of Home Missions, the District Superintendents and the Bishop. The Board is assisting in the support of a college pastor at McKendree and a member of the faculty whose work for the past year is of much interest. His work is pursued in four lines.

First:—Regular class instruction open to all students in Biblical History and Literature, Church History, Missions and Religious Education. For the year 1920-21 fifty-eight different students were enrolled for at least one semester.

Second:—Week end institutes were held in several churches, providing Bible readings and interpretations, Sunday School Addresses and Illustrated Lectures on Biblical subjects. Over 4,000 people were reached in this way. Those who could not be present at college had some opportunity at home.

Third:—Co-operation with Conference Examiners in taking candidates through the Conference courses, wherever possible, and subject to the rules of the examiners. Courses and text books are so arranged as to corelate the Conference and College courses.

Fourth:—Co-operation with student pastors, by visitation and council, assisting in the building up and promoting of small and often rural churches. During the year 1920-21 eighteen churches were served from McKendree, and fourteen by student pastors.

Last:—Having made a survey of each district, and organized an executive board therein to aid in the administration of the business of the district, bringing to the people efficient help, which will mean the occupation of every community by a church with a program that will administer to the whole life of the same; therefore,

Be It Resolved, That we repent of our evil sayings and devoutly espouse the cause of the Centenary, and urge our beloved church to not fail in the adequate support of the same.

Respectfully submitted,
W. H. WHITLOCK, Chairman.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON SUNDAY SCHOOLS.

The mission of the Sunday School is to do the fundamental work of religious education. Its program is comprehensive enough to include all classes from the cradle roll to the most advanced adult classes. But while the church strongly emphasizes the work of the Sunday School for adults, and conducts an ever widening program of Bible study for adults, the conscience of the church ought to be newly quickened to appreciate its responsibility for a larger service in the religious training of children. Dr. Bovard gives the subject ringing emphasis when he says, "We ought to see that only by pre-empting the productive soil of the world's childhood and planting in it the vital seed of Christian truth, can we hope to grow a generation of christians who will give the church its rightful place of moral leadership in the world."

How far behind this program we have fallen we can readily realize when we observe that less than one-third of our American childhood and youth are receiving any kind of religious training and that 27,000,000 children are outside the Sunday School. We commend the wise and untiring efforts of the Sunday School Board to meet this problem by seeking to awaken the nation-wide conscience of the church touching its responsibility to reach the untrained children and youth of America and to this end, to make effective its program of larger efficiency in the teaching force of our schools. We recommend also the system of graded lessons and urge their use wherever practicable. Finally we respectfully urge all our churches to put forth the utmost effort to induce their members and constituency to become interested members of our Sunday Schools to the end that a more vital religious training shall become effective in the family life of our people.

REPORT OF COMMITTE ON SABBATH OBSERVANCE.

Whereas, God has given to man the Sabbath and has commanded us to keep it holy, and as it was set apart as a day of rest and worship;

Therefore be it Resolved, That the Southern Illinois Conference register its protest against all Sabbath desecration and especially Sunday baseball, Sunday picture shows, that are taking our people from the place of worship.

P. H. HEARN, President.
W. H. POOLE, Secretary.

BIBLE CAUSE.

The Holy Bible being the store-house of God's truth and the foundation of our hope that "His Kingdom may come, and His will be done on earth as it is done in heaven;" and in the Holy Bible we have the assurance of eternal life, let us as a great church body give it a more careful and prayerful place in our homes and hearts, and heartily encourage the work of the American Bible Society in giving it to the entire world.

L. S. McKOWN, President.
THOS. B. SOWERS, Secretary.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON TEMPERANCE.

We rejoice that we have lived to see the day of victory in the long, hard battle against the forces of intemperance. The liquor traffic stands convicted by every tribunal and is now an outlaw. Nevertheless, "eternal vigilance is still the price of victory." The liquor interests are alert and active. Many a battle through over-confidence has been lost after it was won. We therefore emphasize the imperative necessity for renewed activity and constant vigilance in State and Nation in order to resist the efforts of the liquor interests to defeat prohibition, either through the repeal of the prohibition laws or through their nullification by lax enforcement.

We express our confidence in the leadership of our Board of Temperance, Prohibition and Public Morals in the work of reform, and pledge our suport to it in its ever widening activities.

We recommend that all our pulpits be open to the representatives of the Anti-Saloon League once a year for the presentation of our cause.

We nominate Dr. U. G. Auer of Staunton, Mrs. J. C. Dooley of Lebanon, and Rev. F. O. Wilson of Cairo as members of the State Anti-Saloon League Board.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON DISARMAMENT.

To the President of the United States of America, Washington, D.C.

We, the members of the Southern Illinois Annual Conference in annual session assembled, at Mt. Vernon, Illinois, with Bishop Joseph F. Berry of Philadelphia, presiding, with sincere greeting desire to express to you:—

First—Our most hearty approval of the call issued by the President of the United States to the great powers of the world for a conference on Limitation of Armaments, fraught as it is with such far reaching posibilities for the peace of the world. We desire also to express our approval of the personnel of the American delegation appointed thereto

Second—With all men of good will we cherish the ideals of peace and pledge ourselves to pray for the success of the conference; recognizing that it would be unwise for the American government to limit its program of armament without the accord of the great powers of the world and agreement touching the far eastern question.

We recommend:

First—That these resolutions be sent to the President of the United States.

Second—That they be read in our homes and churches on Sunday preceding Armistice Day.

Third—That the members of this Conference become propagandists of the ideals of peace as set forth in these resolutions.

O. L. MARKMAN.
J. S. CUMMINS.
W. E. BENNETT.
C. B. LATIMER.
F. L. GEYER.

The national educational issue as represented by the two measures now before congress—the Towner-Sterling Bill—providing for a Department of Education and the standardization and the more adequate uniform support of the public schools, and the Foss-Kenyon Bill by the provisions of which educational matters would be handled as a branch of the proposed new Department of Public Welfare, should be a matter of serious concern to all lovers of our public schools. The subordination of educational interests which would result should the Foss-Kenyon measure become a law, would be disastrous to this vitally important factor in our national well-being.

Therefore, we the members of the Southern Illinois Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, representing a membership of more than 55,000, desire to go on record as emphatically favoring the principles set forth in the Towner-Sterling Bill.

Be it further resolved that copies of this resolution be sent to the United States Senators from our State and the Congressmen representing the several districts comprising the territory of the Southern Illinois Conference, and that we urge them to support the Towner-Sterling Bill.

O. L. MARKMAN.
F. L. GEYER.
J. S. CUMMINS.
W. E. BENNETT.
C. B. LATIMER.

COMMISSION ON FINANCE.

In this day of collossal undertaking by our church we want to again urge upon our pastors to guard the resources of the church against outside calls upon our people for money, especially in fields of service in which the church itself is laboring.

We commend the service and ministry of our institutions located within our borders; namely, the Orphanage at Creal Springs; the Old Folks' Home at St. Francisville; the Holden Hospital at Carbondale, and McKendree College in its enlarged program, and urge that their representatives be given a hearty welcome to our pulpits. We also urge co-operation with the Anti-Saloon League in giving them access to the pulpits of our churches.

W. D. RICHARDSON.
W. H. WHITLOCK.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON DISTRICT CONFERENCE JOURNALS.

The committee met at 1:00 p.m., Wednesday, September 21, 1921,, examined the Journal of East St. Louis District and found it correct and well kept.

J. B. JOHNSON, Chairman.
C. S. TRITT, Secretary.

FREEDMANS AID.

We are as ever convinced of the necessity of our work for the Colored Race. The time is not yet when this unfortunate race can be trusted to go alone. While we rejoice in the evidenced tokens of advancement, they still need the fostering care of our schools and the guiding hand of the Church.

One hundred million black people in Africa and twelve millions in the home land must be brought to a saving knowledge of Jesus Christ and trained in the arts of civilization. Our share in the task must be bourne cheerfully along with the larger task of world Evangelization and world Reconstruction.

To this end we recommend that special sermons be preached setting forth the claims of the race upon our sympathy and our resources and that our people be advised of the work of our schools for Colored people. That every available means be employed in arousing interest in this most fruitful field of missionary endeavor. In this connection we would call attention to the Bill that is now pending in congress to make lynching a federal offense, and thus give the negro greater protection by taking the matter of prosecution out of the hands of the local communities where such crimes are committed.

Respectfully submitted,
J. S. CUMMINS, Chairman.
J. R. SLATEN, Secretary.

REPORT OF THE ANNUAL CONFERENCE BOARD OF EDUCATION.

BE IT RESOLVED:—

Third—That all subscriptions to the McKendree Movement shall be conditioned upon the total amount of One and One-Half Million Dollars being pledged on or before December 21, 1921;

Fourth—That we recognize in McKendree College a valuable and essential institution for the achievement of the best work of the Kingdom of Jesus Christ in Southern Illinois, and to this McKendree Movement we hereby pledge our cordial co-operation and support.

THE BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH.

We commend the Board of Education of the Methodist Episcopal Church to the pastors and churches for their most loyal support. Vast increases in the contributions from the churches has made possible enlarged appropriations to the schools and colleges of the church, help to an ever increasing number of worthy students, the encouragement of more thorough and helpful work on the conference course of study, the enlargement of southern schools and more extensive work among our Methodist students in the great State University. To best prosecute these various lines of work well defined departments are taking shape within the Board. The future is replete with possibilities and offers an unsurpassed investment for the benevolent funds of the church.

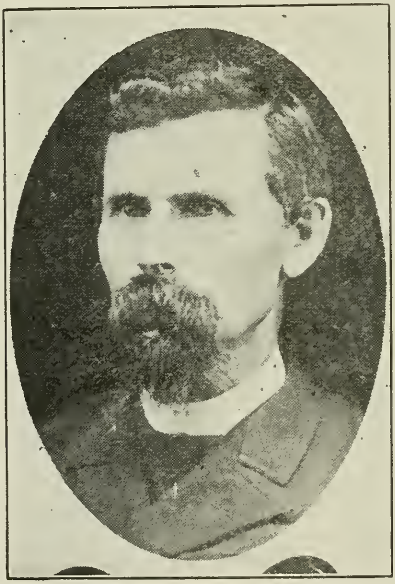
MEMOIRS

JONATHAN J. BOYER.

Jonathan J. Boyer, a retired member of the Southern Illinois Conference, died at his home in Xenia, Illinois, Sept. 15, 1921.

Brother Boyer was born in Pennsylvania, July 29, 1839. His early life was spent in his native state and in Ohio, and while still a young man he came to Illinois and took up his residence in Fayette county, near Vandalia.



When the Civil war came on he enlisted as a volunter in Co. F, Eleventh Illinois Cavalry whose commander was Col. Robert G. Ingersoll. He served valiantly, taking part in all the marches, battles and experiences of his regiment until honorably discharged in September, 1865.

He was converted to God and became a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church in early manhood. In 1860 he was licensed to preach and rendered able service in that office. In 1868 he was ordained Deacon by Bishop James, and at the same time admitted to membership in the Southern Illinois Conference. He was ordained Elder by Bishop Thomas Bowman in 1872. He continued an active and signally effective ministry for many years, serving as pastor in Patoka in 1868, DuQuoin 1869-71, Steelville 1872, Dongola 1873-74, Hebron 1875-76, Enfield 1877-78, Steelville 1879, Metropolis 1880, Centralia 1881-82, Irvington 1883, Centralia 1884, Odin 1885, Xenia 1886-88, Jeffersonville 1889, Clay City 1890-91. In this latter year he was granted the retired relation at his own request.

Brother Boyer was a powerful preacher of the pioneer type and had good success, great revivals developing under his ministry. He was mighty in the controversial age of the church and did much to establish Methodism on strong and lasting foundation.

Since his retirement his home has been in Xenia, where he was held in the highest regard by the church and a great company of friends. His health gave way some years ago and for a long time he was an invalid, getting about in a wheel chair. His devotion to God and the church were unabated till death claimed him.

He is survived by his faithful wife and three sons, Edward C., and George E. Boyer of Peoria, and William Boyer of Chicago, five grand children and an aged brother.

Funeral services were held in the church in Xenia, conducted by the pastor, Rev. J. C. Foutz, and Rev. J. E. McCranken, who preached the funeral sermon. His body was laid to rest in the Xenia cemetery.

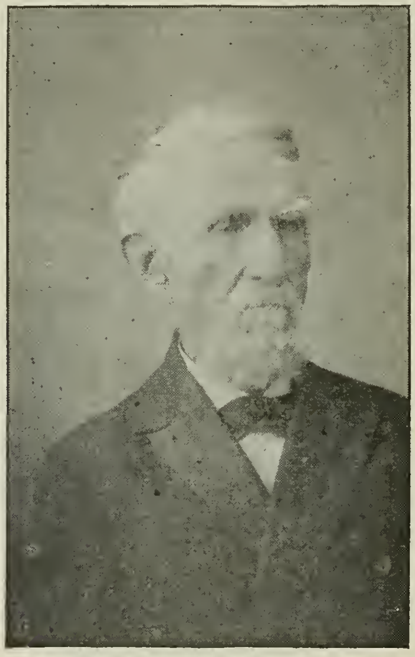
LEVI SHARPE WALKER.

Levi Sharpe Walker, son of Simeon and Elizabeth Sharpe Walker was born in Clinton County, Illinois, September 14, 1829. His father being an itinerant Methodist preacher, the son shared in the joys and hardships of the pioneer preacher's life, even in the early days of his childhood. At nine years of age he passed through a soul crisis that resulted in a deep religious experience and a complete deliverance from a burdensome fear of death that had strongly impressed his mind.

Early in life he entered with zeal into religious work . He served the church as a Sunday School teacher and superintendent, and also at various times as Class Leader, Trustee, Steward, Exhorter and local preacher. He proved the genuineness of his conversion by his faithful and devout discharge of all these responsible duties.

December 29, 1849, he was united in marriage to Martha Henrietta Barnes at Mascoutah, Illinois, with whom he walked in the bonds of holy wedlock until her death April 2, 1886. His wife was a daughter of the Rev. Joshua Barnes and a niece of the Rev. Samuel H. Thompson, both of whom were pioneer Methodist preachers of Illinois. To this union were born four sons and three daughters. One of the daughters, Mrs. Adelia Thompson Colemeyer of Kansas City, and two of the sons, Dr. Edward Allen of Mansfield, Illinois, and Dr. Harry A., of Chicago, survive the father.



He was married the second time to Mrs. Emma P. McCracken of Richview, Illinois, September 29, 1887. One child was born to this latter union, Mrs. Ruth Walker Gibson of Richview, Illinois, who also survives her father.

He was licensed as a preacher at Richview, Illinois, August 30, 1856, and worked under John H. Hill who was at that time presiding elder. He was admitted on trial in the Southern Illinois Conference at Lebanon in the fall of 1857. He was ordained deacon by Bishop E. R. Ames at Richview in 1859, and elder by Bishop E. S. Janes at Salem in 1861. During the forty years of his itinerant life he served the following charges: Richview, Pinckneyville, Vienna, Greenville, Mt. Vernon, Chaplain 60th Illinois Infantry for three years, Tamaroa, Nashville, Chester, Irvington, Chaplain Southern Illinois Penitentiary three years, Sparta, Mt. Vernon circuit, Carbondale circuit, and Chester for the second time, where, at the close of a five-year pastorate, he asked for and was granted the retired relation. After nearly twenty-four years in the retired relation and almost ninety-two of the earth pilgrimage, Levi Sharpe Walker left this world for his heavenly home April 6, 1921.

The funeral service was held in the Methodist Episcopal Church in Richview, Friday, April 8. The address was delivered by the Rev. C. L. Peterson. Other members of the Conference present and taking part in the service were W. L. Rhein, L. R. Mauk, H. H. Young and Ressho Robertson.

The body was laid to rest in the cemetery at Richview, near the home where he had spent the years of his retirement, and where his surviving widow resides.

MARY FRANCIS THOMAS.

Mary Francis Thomas was born in Indiana, January 14, 1857. She came to Illinois with her parents and settled near Mason, Ill. Her mother died when she was a small child and her father took her to the home of Wm. Fletcher and Frances Anna Curtis. Her father died when she was 11 years of age, so she was raised in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Curtis as their own child. She removed with her foster parents to Farmer City, Ill., where she lived until she was married to Albert Harris, Oct. 10, 1878. To this union three children were born, namely: Robert Gay, who died at the age of six months, Albert Nelson, and Anna Bess (Mrs. John Oliver), who survive her.

Her husband entered the ministry in the Methodist Protestant Church and was ordained an elder in 1880. He was admitted on trial to the Southern Illinois Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church in 1885 and served until 1918. Thus during thirty-eight years she walked beside him doing the work of a Methodist minister's wife. She came with Brother Harris to Sparta in 1916, where they served two years, before his death on January 16, 1919. Since which time she has made her home with her daughter, Mrs. John Oliver.

She was converted when 11 years of age and united with the M. E. Church and has been faithful to her Christ and His church during more than one-half century until her death Tuesday, February 1, 1921.

She was a member of Sparta Chapter No. 411, O. E. S., and Sparta Rebecca Lodge No. 366. She had been in ill health for some time, but having a strong will power she continued her activities until about six weeks before her death when she was stricken and failed rapidly until the end. She was removed to Holden Hospital two weeks prior to her death where all was done for her that medical skill could do, but to no avail. At three o'clock, Tuesday, February 1, she passed to be with her Lord and loved ones gone before.

She leaves beside her two children, one brother, Noah Thomas of Gordan, Ill., one sister, Mrs. Allie Reinhart of Elwood, Neb., her foster parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Curtis of Superior, Wis., and four foster sisters, and a large circle of friends gained during her long life in the ministry.

MRS. J. W. JACKSON.

Mary A. Jackson, nee Stillwell, was born in Salem near Dayton, Ohio, June 6, 1842. Her mother was a devoted Christian. Mrs. Jackson was converted at Methodist altar at the age of sixteen and from that experience she never wavered.

She was educated in the public schools of Ohio and began teaching in the common schools of that state at the age of eighteen, teaching continuously for fifteen years. Twelve years were spent in this service in the graded schools of Bradford, Ohio.

March the 20th, 1873, in her school room, surrounded by her pupils, she was married to Rev. J. W. Jackson. She was the mother of two children. She is survived by her husband, daughter, stepdaughter, six grandchildren, five great grandchildren, other relatives and many friends.

Mrs. Jackson was zealous and persistent in her efforts to extend the kingdom of righteousness. In the fall of 1873 she led a band of praying women in the temperance crusade against the saloons of Bradford, Ohio. She was locked in a saloon for twenty minutes, but her band of ladies knelt on the door steps of the saloon and prayed until she was released. She was undying in her interests in Christian missions. She was a charter member of the present auxiliary in Worthington, Ind., of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society. She was not the only member of her father's family who was devoted to the missionary program of the church. Her brother, Rev. J. R. Stillwell, chaplain of the 69th Regiment of the Ohio Volunteers of the Civil War, was one of the nine men who organized the Freedmen's Aid Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

In 1880 she moved with her husband to Southern Illinois where she entered heartily with him into the work of the ministry of the Methodist Episcopal Church of the Southern Illinois Conference. She conducted a Sunday School during two summers in a log school house situated in Dark Bend within the bounds of the Olney district. She was a queenly woman among women and a power for good among young people and children. She was always anxious that those declaring their faith in Christ should make a complete consecration and come into a definite personal experience.

She never possessed a rugged physical constitution and had been a patient sufferer for many years. She never lost faith in God nor interest in the church.

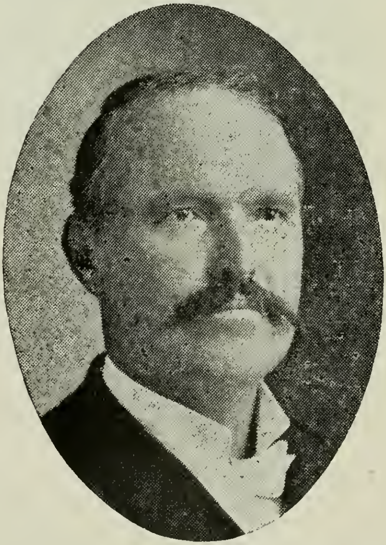
Sunday afternoon, February 13, 1921, surrounded by her family in her home at Worthington, Ind., she peacefully took her flight to the "Land where the day breaks eternal and the shadows flee away."

The funeral services were held in the Methodist Episcopal Church of Worthington, Ind., February 15, 1921, in charge of her pastor, Rev. J. M. Larmore, and Rev. H. W. Smoot of Carmi, Ill.

REV. JOHN H. FORD.

John H. Ford was born near Hopkinsville, Christian County, Kentucky, December 6, 1850, and died in Lewisburg, Kentucky, June 6, 1921, aged 70 years and 6 months.

He was born in a Methodist home, and in his seventh year he professed faith in Christ and united with the Methodist Episcopal Church near Mayfield, Ky. Very early he felt the call to preach and soon made plans to enter the itinerant ministry. Having received a common school education, he recognized the need of better equipment mentally, and he attended the school at DePauw University for a number of years.



He was received on trial in the Kentucky Conference in the spring of 1879. In 1886 he was transferred to the Southern Illinois Conference and was assigned to Steelville, serving charges in that Conference until 1914, his last charge being Collinsville, 1911-1914. From 1903 to 1908 he was superintendent of the Alton district.

At the Conference session held at Mt. Vernon, Ill., in 1915, he asked for the retired relation, which was granted, and for nearly six years he lived at Lewisburg, Ky., but was not able to preach anymore. He had toiled as long as he was able and now entered into the twilight of old age, happy and free of faith.

February 1, 1881, he was united in marriage to Miss Minda E. Turner, near Lewisburg, Ky. To this union one son was born who died in infancy. These lives blended beautifully, each a helper to the other. Brother Ford was a good student, and a great preacher of the Gospel of Jesus Christ; she a tireless worker, and through the many happy years of wedded life they enjoyed gracious revivals of religion, and the churches under the ministry of this man of God always had increases in all departments of their activity.

Brother Ford was held in high esteem by the members of the Conference, and in all the charges that he served, he left a host of friends and those people who delighted to hear him preach. In the years of his retirement he knew that slowly he was approaching the end of life's journey. The body grew weaker, but his faith increased. He frequently said to his companion who was so faithfully caring for him: "You will be lonely, but I will be better." And when at last his speech was gone and his companion talking to him about God and Christ, no lip movements came to convey his message, he pointed up to heaven. That was his dying message. God and heaven were still his.

The funeral services were held in the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, of Lewisburg, Ky., conducted by C. C. Hall of East St. Louis, Ill., assisted by the pastors of the local Methodist and Baptist churches of the town.

The prayers and sympathy of many friends go out to the bereaved companion, but angels in heaven and Christians on earth rejoice that a good man, an honest toiler, and an earnest preacher has at last been called from suffering and pain to everlasting joy and bliss around the throne of God.

And thanking the members of the Presbyterian church and the people of Mt. Vernon for their hospitality.

MEMORIAL GIFTS.

The Southern Illinois Conference adopted a resolution providing for the publication of a memorial list to be part of its records, the names of those who by legacies, memorials, and gifts of $1,000 or more who have manifested their love and high esteem for the beneficiaries we serve. The Conference is entering upon a campaign to raise a Permanent Fund of $200,000, the interest of which is to provide a more adequate support for the retired preachers, their widows and dependent children of the Southern Illinois Conference.

STANDING RULES OF CONFERENCE.

I. When any member of the Conference intends to object to the passage of the character of any member, he shall hand the name of such member to the President, who shall pass the name by and direct the case to be investigated.

II. When any one of our members is called from earth, it shall be the duty of the nearest pastor or District Superintendent of the district to notify all the preachers in the district of such death, and of the time set for the funeral services.

III. At each session of Conference a publisher shall be elected to publish the minutes of the next session who shall be authorized to make arrangements and enter into a contract for the publication in advance of the session.

IV. The District Superintendent of the district, and the preacher in charge of the station where the Conference is to be held, together with the presidents of the several Conference societies, are instructed to arrange the program of religious exercises, and if practicable, secure their publication in the Central Christian Advocate.

V. The Board of Stewards shall consist of six members of the Conference, each of whom shall serve three years, two being elected at each session of the Conference. The Conference may, at its discretion, add two laymen, to be elected annually. The Board shall organize each year by electing a president, secretary and treasurer, whose names shall be published in the Conference minutes.

VI. When the names of candidates for admission, on trial or for orders, are called, they shall, if present, be called forward and introduced to the Conference.

VII. All candidates for recognition of orders shall, unless excused by vote of the Conference, be examined in the same manner as candidates for ordination, and the Committee on Conference Relation shall inquire into the character and fitness for the traveling connection of each candidate for admission on trial, for admission into full connection, or for readmission into the Conference, and all persons desiring a change of relation or any special appointment.

VIII. There shall be a meeting of the Statistical Secretaries with the Conference Treasurer at eight o'clock on Saturday morning, for the purpose of comparing the money reported in the statistical tables.

IX. When a member of the Annual Conference dies, the Conference shall appropriate one hundred dollars to provide a monument for him. The Conference to elect annually a custodian of Monument Fund, who shall apportion the amount necessary to this fund to the several charges on the basis of the amount paid by the charge for pastoral support the previous year. The pastor to report this under the head of other collections. The publisher of the minutes shall reserve a column in the statistical tables for this report.

X. No person in the second year's course of study shall be placed on the Statistician or Treasurer's force.

XI. The Stewards are authorized to take annually from the pro rata due the claimants from the Book Concern, a sum according to their discretion, not to exceed ten per cent of their indebtedness to the Book Concern, until it shall be paid in full.

XII. All reports of committees and resolutions shall be handed to the Secretary in duplicate.

XIII. No person shall have his orders recognized who comes from a church that requires a lower standard of literary qualification than the Methodist Episcopal Church, without passing an examination with us.

XIV. To admit on trial any candidate who is over thirty-five years of age, it shall require a two-thirds vote of all members present and voting, provided the two-thirds equal a majority of all members of the Conference.

XV. All charges entertaining the Annual Conference shall provide lodging and breakfast only, leaving the attendants to provide for the mid-day and evening meals. Provided, this does not apply to superannuated members, their wives, the widows of deceased ministers, deaconesses and guests officially invited, who shall have full entertainment. The committee on Entertainment shall see that sufficient and wholesome meals shall be provided at reasonable rates.

XVI. All members of the Conference under appointment as Conference Evangelists shall, on the call of their names for passage of character, report their work for the past year, stating number and place of revival meetings held, number professed conversions and accessions to membership of the church.

XVII. All reports from the charges not received by Thursday evening of Conference week will not appear in the published minutes of the Conference.

XVIII. On the first day of the Conference, at the hour following the Communion Service, a memorial shall be held for the ministers and ministers' wives who have died during the year. The Bishop shall appoint someone to deliver the address, and also an alternate.

XIX. The Secretary of this Conference and the publisher of minutes shall edit the minutes each year before printing same. The printed minutes of the Conference shall be the official journal of the Conference. The publishers of the minutes shall send one copy of each year's minutes by mail free to each retired minister of the Conference and to each widow of deceased ministers of the Conference.

XX. Each pastor shall collect or pay a minute fund equal to one-third of one per cent of his cash salary, and shall be entitled to one copy of the minutes for each one hundred dollars of cash salary. The District Superintendents shall receive nine copies each and pay three dollars for the same.

XXI. It shall require two-thirds of those present and voting to change or suspend any of these rules, except rule fourteen, which has its own provision.

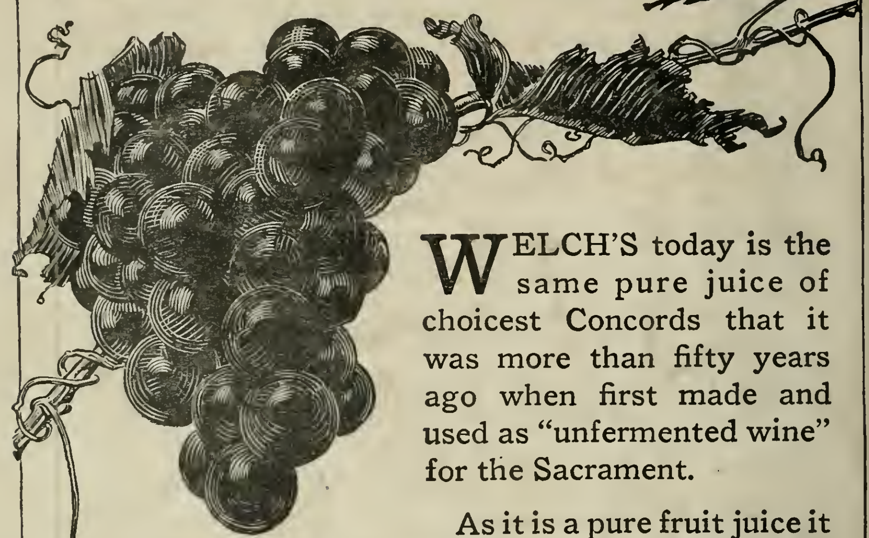
Welch's
"THE NATIONAL DRINK"



WELCH'S today is the same pure juice of choicest Concords that it was more than fifty years ago when first made and used as "unfermented wine" for the Sacrament.

As it is a pure fruit juice it is well for Church Stewards always to keep Welch's in glass containers. In this way — even though it stands a while before the service — the original flavor of Welch's is retained without the slightest flat or metallic taste.

Welch's is a wholesome drink at the fountain and at home. Sold by grocers and druggists.

Welch's Grapelade
the pure grape spread

A grape spread of Welch Quality— not a by-product, but made of whole, ripe, luscious grapes. Velvety smooth, tart-sweet and delicious. In 15 oz. glass jars.

2—Wesley Foundation.

We commend the good work of the Wesley Foundation at the University of Illinois as reported by Dr. J. C. Baker, and we recommend a hearty cooperation on the part of the pastors of our Conference in the collection of pledges yet remaining unpaid.

3—McKendree College.

(a) We rejoice in the fact that McKendree College is now accredited with the North Central Association of Colleges and Universities and is also in good standing with the State University. The committee is of the opinion that McKendree stands today better equipped to offer standard college courses than ever before in her long history of nearly one hundred years.

(b) We find the present budget for the ensuing year to be approximately $50,000, and the total income available for current expenses to be about $22,500. As to the deficit left, provision has been made to gradually decrease the amount year by year, as the endowment pledges are paid and as the income of the college increases.

(c) We find after careful investigation that the total amount of valid pledges for endowment and building in the recent campaign is approximately $700,000. This shrinkage from the original announcement of $900,000 is largely due to the over-enthusiastic reports of special canvassers sent out by the Board of Education, who reported certain estate pledges to be worth $110,000, which in reality were worth only $1,025, and the failure of the validation of pledges amounting to $63,000. In spite of these facts we rejoice in the measure of success achieved, and the Executive Committee of the Board of Trustees report that the campaign will enable the college to make needed improvements, pay all debts and provide a productive endowment of $500,000 at the end of the five years period. An exact financial statement will be sent to each subscriber to the Endowment Fund in the near future.

(d) We recommend that each pastor thoroughly revise his committee of education so that a thorough cooperation may be secured between the administration of the college and the pastoral charges of the conference, to the end that the student body may be materially increased and the power and influence of the college greatly multiplied.

C. R. YOST, Chairman.
J. W. A. KINISON, Secretary.

Committee on Board of Education for Negroes.

In view of the large returns on our investment of money and effort, for the Negro race, through the Freedmans' Aid, resulting in a constituency of more than 2,000 ministers and a third of a million members, who in the first year of the Centenary contributed nearly a half-million dollars to this cause

We recommend a close cooperation of all our Churches with the Board of Education for Negroes, to the end that the program of the church for the progress of this race may be fully realized.

E. C. PHILLIPS.

Reports of Committees

Report of the Board of the Orphans and Children's Home of the Southern Illinois Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, located at Mount Vernon, Illinois.

We have been located in our new home one year and while not able to report any great advancement made in work done, yet some improvements have been made and children have been cared for as our limited accommodations would permit.

The building has been improved by re-roofing, installing heat, water and light and making it as nearly modern as possible.

Plans were being worked out for a new building program when Superintendent Reid was stricken with illness which resulted in his death. On account of the death of Bro. Reid all building plans were postponed until next year.

In the passing of Bro. Reid the Board of Managers feel that we have lost a faithful servant, a wise counsellor and an untiring worker for the cause which we represent.

Bro. N. M. Moss was chosen to act as Superintendent for the remainder of the business year and his services have been highly satisfactory.

We are deeply indebted to Mrs. J. Y. Ried for the able assistance she has rendered in caring for the clerical work of the institution.

At a recent meeting of the Board, Rev. Samuel Thero was chosen as Superintendent for the coming year.

The Creal Springs property has been sold for $6,250.00 and this amount with the amount contributed by Mt. Vernon citizens and other friends covers the purchase price of the Mt. Vernon property.

The auditing committee has examined the accounts and records of the Superintendent and Treasurer and report them to be correct.

The following are nominated for members of the board:

Board of Managers for Orphans and Children's Home

To serve one year—Pastor at First Church, Mt. Vernon; C. D. Shumard, L. C. Campbell, V. E. Richardson.

To serve two years—Robert Morris, P. R. Glotfelty, S. B. Vaughn, R. O. Burke.

To serve three years—L. W. Porter, Laurence Smith, N. E. Prince, L. H. Buckley.

Report of The Committee on Temperance.

We rejoice that we have lived to see the day when Old Glory, our own Stars and Stripes does not float over a single saloon legalized by law in this United States of America. The battle was a hard fought one, and we rejoice in the victories achieved over the worst foe of mankind. The liquor forces are alert and are trying to annul or amend the 18th amendment, using the power of the press wherever they can and every other agency possible to this end.

Therefore:—

We want to emphasize the necessity of every one who has the right to franchise to vote against all these un-American schemes that are against righteousness, obedience of law, good society, pure, clean homes, noble manhood and womanhood, realizing they are willing to over-ride law, and crush out the forces that are trying to make the world a decent place to live in, in order to carry on their work of commercialism and greed.

We heartily approve of the organization and work of the federal officers who are discharging their duties and maintaining law and order and we pledge ourselves in every way, possible, to assist in bringing the law breakers to justice and to the destruction of this nefarious business.

We express our confidence in the leadership of our Board of Temperance, Prohibition and Public Morals, in the work of Publicity and Reform and pledge our support to it in its ever-widening activities.

We recommend that all our pulpits be open to the representatives of the Anti-Saloon League once a year for the presentation of our cause.

We nominate Dr. U. G. Auer of Staunton, Ill., Mrs. J. C. Dolly of Lebanon, Ill., and Rev. F. O. Wilson of Cairo, Ill., as members of the State Anti-Saloon League Board.

G. A. DUNN,
E. W. BARRETT,
J. C. KINISON,
Committee.

Report of the Committee of the Woman's Home Missionary Society.

In view of the splendid work accomplished by the W. H. M. S. through her institutions. Within the bounds of our conference, namely, Holden Hospital, Slavonic Mission, the influence of the benevolent life of the church, where its auxiliaries are maintained by the study of the problems of the home field and their effort to meet the same, we recommend and urge upon every pastor, where such a society is found, his heartiest co-operation be given to the society's work. And that where such auxiliaries are not in existence that diligence be given to establish and promote such societies.

P. R. GLOTFETY, Chairman,
W. M. BROWN, Secretary.

Report of Committee on Home Missions.

Your committee presents the following report—

FIRST: We commend the splendid administration of the Board of Home Missions in its wise distribution of the funds committed to its care.

And in view of the fact that the Board is assisting in the support of pastors, the building of houses of worship, parsonages and community houses for the social life of the Church, and by Centenary aid, making it possible to keep special workers and missionary help in the home field in needy places. All of which commend the work of the board to the business sense of the Church and calls for a deeper fidelity to its program.

SECOND: Therefore, be it resolved that we give our hearty support to the Centenary program and urge our beloved Church not to fail in the adequate support of the same.

L. G. BEERS, President,
J. A. BELL, Secretary.

Report of the W. F. M. S.

Inasmuch as the women of the W. F. M. S. have emphasized the evangelistic note in all their work, we note with pleasure the splendid results of their work in every way. Therefore, be it resolved, that both district superintendents and pastors of the various charges in our great Conference encourage them in their good work and help them to augment and increase the work so dear to them, and give them our heartiest co-operation.

J. H. DAVIS, Chairman,
G. CALVERT, Secretary.

Sabbath Observance

Whereas God has blessed the Sabbath day and in His holy word commanded us to keep it thus, and as it was given us as a day of rest and for the worship of God.

Resolved, first, that the Southern Illinois Conference register its disapproval of Sabbath desecration, especially those things which keep our people from their several places of worship;

Resolved, second, that we hereby ask all our ministers to cry aloud and spare not against all such forms of worldly amusement which cannot be taken in the name of our Lord Jesus.

S. D. BERST.

Report of Bible Cause

"Thy word is a lamp to my feet," as true now as when first spoken and in the "maddening maze of things", we need a guide more than did the ancients. The Bible is our guide and let us study it, follow it and recommend its use more and more.

J. W. CUMMINS.

Old Folks Home.

The year has brought to the Old Folks Home many opportunities for ministry. Last Conference, Mrs. Nellie B. Reeves, who became a guest of the home in 1914, was the only life member in the home. Since then, Mrs. Candace Downer of Mt. Vernon, Mrs. Louisa McCurdy of Enfield and Mrs. Olive Bradford of Wayne City, have become our guests for life. These, with Mrs. Tolbert and Miss Warner, who are boarding guests, comprise our family today. We have room for eight. None of the guests have been seriously sick, and Death has not passed through our doors this year.

Various friends in the churches have sent gifts to the home which have added to the comfort of the guests. The Board has added to the physical equipment, built fences, planted fruit trees and otherwise cared for the current needs. The matron and guests have planted flowers, filled porch boxes and greatly added to the beauty and pleasure of the home.

Epworth League

Lord Beaconfield once said: "That the hope of England is in her young men." This is not only true of a nation, but we must confess that the hope of our church is in her young life. That the Epworth League might produce pure-hearted, high-souled, far-visioned men and women for our church of to-morrow, we recommend—

1. That the Epworth League should have a large place in the heart and life of every pastor. That as the scarcity of ministers is becoming an appalling fact in the midst of Methodism, that once at least during the year this matter be brought before the league of each charge by the Pastor in a proper manner, urging that decision be made by someone for this high and sacred calling.

2. That the annual institute deserves our best efforts in order that it may continue to be the power in the future, it has been in the past inspiring and uplifting our young people socially, mentally, and spiritually.

3. That as far as practical we carry out the Epworth League programme recommended from the head office that unity, fellowship, and co-operation may everywhere prevail.

4. That a conference cabinet be elected to co-operate with the district cabinet in promotion of the work of the Epworth League institute. We therefore recommend the following:

President—F. O. Wilson.
1st Vice-President—L. A. Magill.
2nd Vice President—Fay Marriott.
3rd Vice-President—Walter Garrison.
4th Vice-President—L. E. Page.
Secretary—Mrs. Mildred Trabue.
Junior League—Mrs. C. L. Patterson.

Sunday School Report.

Realizing that the Sunday School age is the opportune time and most prolific field for evangelistic and Christian training and recognizing in the organized methods of to-day the church's best efforts, we therefore recommend, aside from the regular Sunday School work these lines:

1. Teacher Training—

Realizing the great need of trained teachers we would emphasize the importance of teacher training and urge every school to pursue and finish a course of Teacher Training as offered by our church at this time.

2. The Week-Day Religious Instruction.

The movement now in progress for an enlarged program of religious education is possibly the most important educational movement since the educational revival of the second quarter of the nineteenth century.

It is very significant not only for the church but for society itself.

The complete separation of church and state has resulted in a separation of religion and education, so far as public education is concerned.

Realizing the importance of religious education and religious training, we therefore recommend, since this education cannot be obtained in the public schools, that our people be urged to carry out, wherever possible, the Week-Day Religious Instruction as directed by the leaders of our great church.

3. Systematic Bible Study.

Since the Word of God is the greatest force in the world for good, we therefore recommend that our superintendent and Sunday School leaders urge upon the members of their respective schools the daily study of the Bible, and that in some way a public recognition be given this book.

J. B. JOHNSON, Chairman,
J. R. SLATEN, Secretary.

RESOLUTIONS

Whereas, in the divine providence of Almighty God, we have been permitted to enjoy the blessings and triumphs of another year, together with the privileges and fellowship of the Conference session, therefore be it

Rsolved, that we express our profound gratitude to God for His loving kindness and gracious tenderness throughout the year, and for every victory that has crowned our labors in Christ's name.

Resolved, that we express our hearty thanks and sincere appreciation to the pastor, the Rev. C. D. Shumard and his people, and to others who have assisted, for the cordial hospitality and splendid entertainment they have afforded us in the joy of their welcome, the comfort of their homes, and the pleasure of their fellowship.

Resolved, that we extend to Bishop McConnell our hearty thanks for his presence in our emergency, his cheering messages, his fine brotherly spirit, his masterly manner in conducting the Conference business; and assure him that we shall esteem it a great privilege and pleasure to have him with us at any future date.

Resolved, that we tender to Bishop Quayle in his illness, our heartfelt sympathy and our deepest and most sincere desires that if it be the Lord's will, he may be spared to us and to the world in the work of the Kingdom.

Resolved, that we express our appreciation of the workers of our connectionalism who have come with helpful messages regarding the various phases of the work.

Resolved, that we commend the great principles of Christian Stewardships as the means of persuading our people to lay upon the altar adequate resources of life and means for advancing the interests of the Kingdom as represented by our great Church; that we urge the adoption of the program of stewardship in every local church, recommending especially that the study class and the "Easter Tithe Offering" be emphasized as important parts of that program.

Resolved, that we register our protest and regret for the murders committed and the unlawful depredations carried on within our territory, the disrespect for law and order, the violation of the Constitution, especially the eighteenth amendment, and that we urge upon our laity their responsibility in upholding the law, asking them to disregard the proposition of light wine and beers, should it come to a referendum vote, and that we declare anew the doctrine of the Fatherhood of God and the Brotherhood of man as the only remedy for the ills of the world.

PASTORAL ADDRESS

To the Pastors and Members of the Southern Illinois Conference:

Greetings:

We, your fellow laborers rejoice in the victories of the Gospel through your labors of love and service. We exhort you to avoid the heresy of pessimism. The church of Christ is not decadent for it has won the greatest moral victory of the Christian ages in the outlawing of the liquor traffic. No power or combination of powers is mighty enough to have done that save the church. In Revolutionary times one in every thirteen belonged to the church while now the relation is one to three. Membership in the Southern Illinois Conference has increased over one hundred percent with the last generation. The percentage of gain in the Protestant churches has been greater than the growth of population in the United States. More people are brought into the church yearly on the mission fields of China, India and Korea than the total number of Christians in the world at the death of St. Paul. The Kingdom of God is coming just as fast as men are brought individually and collectively to do the will of God in all the affairs of men.

How fast the Kingdom of God shall come depends largely on our holiness of life and earnestness of service. What might we not accomplish if all of our churches were bodies of holy men and women? The greatest hindrance to the progress of the Kingdom is not without but from within, not from the unbelief of the world but from the faithlessness in the church, not from the wickedness of non-Christians, but from the worldliness, ignorance, prayerlessness and indifference of professing Christians.

The Methodist Church has no excuse for being if it does not preach and practice Scriptural, purposeful, vital, winsome holiness. We believe that Methodism is still Christianity in earnest, that our church is at heart sound in doctrine and practice.

Our District Superintendents report that the most frequent criticism from the laymen has to do with the ministers preaching and pastoral work. If God calls men to preach, does he not call them to inspirational, comforting information, evangelistic, fearless preaching? With a thing so wonderful, so vast and varied, so indispensible, so divine, and yet so human as the Gospel of Christ, is it not strange that we should have dull and duller hearers? With so much sorrow, lonliness, heart hunger, with so many religious vagaries, how can any minister fail to be a good pastor?

We rejoice in the continuing evangelistic fervor of our church, that in so many of our churches there are so many revivals of great power. Methodism was born when John Wesley's heart was strangely warmed. All the work of the church should be evangelistic. Teaching and evangelism cannot be separated so long as either is Christian. We must be evangelistic throughout the year and by every means which will lead folks to Christ. It is not only a multitude of decisions that we need, but the building up of believers. It is not only more Methodists we need, but better Methodists. Our church activity must be related to the actual life of men. Perhaps the supreme heresy is to separate the spiritual from the material. We are only Christians when we relate ourselves rightly with the so-called forces of life, so long as we are in this life.

We call upon our people to accept the principles of Stewardship of Life. We must make it clear that stewardship is more than tithing. May the Kingdom of God come in society, industry and the educational processes.

Finally brethren, whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report, if there be any virtue and if there be any praise think on these things.

C. R. YOST,
ROBERT MORRIS.

Memoirs

LUTHUR ELLIOTT COLE

Luther Elliott Cole was born near Boston, Massachusetts, October 9th, 1847 and died in Lacombe Hospital, Lacombe, Canada, September 10th, 1922, aged 74 years, 11 months and one day. He is survived by his aged widow, three sons, three daughters and thirteen grandchildren. The children are Prof. C. N. Cole, of Oberlin, Ohio; Mrs. Hattie Taylor of Donnellson, Illinois; Frank O. Cole, of British Columbia; Albert E. Cole of Portland, Oregon; Mrs. Mary Evernden and Mrs. Clara Mowbray, of Bentley, Canada. One daughter, Flora E., having died in infancy.

Brother Cole came to Illinois when a small lad where he lived many years. He was converted and united with the Methodist Episcopal Church in early manhood.

In 1880 he entered the ministry, joining the Southern Illinois Conference and continued in active service until 1904. He served the following Charges: Grafton, Elsah, Avena, Gillespie, Bridgeport, Enfield, Equality and Donnellson. At the latter place he was granted the Retired relation on account of his wife's health. In the spring of 1906 he moved to Canada, settled on a farm northwest of Bentley and has lived in that community for the past seventeen years.

He was of a cheerful disposition—independent in spirit, never wanting to be helpless, but ever ready to help others with his services of love in any way he could.

He conducted services in several of the school houses about the community in earlier days, supplying for the regular pastor.

He was a firm believer in the old-time religion, very set in his views, not given to compromise when he believed he was right.

He sank peacefully to rest in the early morning hours of the day he loved best—The Holy Sabbath Day.

SARAH BRYAN JAY

Sarah Bryan Jay. More than a century ago Sarah Bryan was born near Wooster, Wayne County, Ohio. The year 1838 with her parents, she came to Sumner, Ill., spending the remainder of her life in this state.

July 28th, 1841, she was united in marriage to Charles F. Jay, a young farmer, who afterwards became a prominent minister of the Gospel in the Methodist Episcopal Church.

To this union were born eight children, three of whom with their father preceded her to their reward. Mrs. Sarah M. Beggman, Mrs. Alice A. Elsey and Norman A., of Steeleville; Mrs. Mary E. Allen of Sparta, and Charles F., of Mt. Vernon, with a host of grand-children, great grand-children, relatives and friends feel deeply their loss.

She was a true devoted wife, an ideal mother, loved and honored by all who knew her. Sister Jay was one of those staunch Christian characters that would shine for the Master anywhere. A real soldier of the Cross, one who was willing to suffer for her Lord and rejoiced that she was counted worthy to do so.

For twenty-five years she labored side by side with her husband in the Lord's vineyard. No burden too heavy, no battle too fierce.

She lived on the sunny side of the Cross, reproducing the Christ life.

In her last days, even while her body was racked with pain, she looked heavenward and exclaimed, "I will soon be there." Grandma never lost interest in the Church, often inquiring as to its progress. Really Sister Jay is neither gone or forgotten. Her influence will abide many centuries.

Funeral services were conducted by Rev. Samuel Albrecht, her old pastor, assisted by Rev. Tucker and Rev. Stockton, and W. D. Simmons, the present pastor. Interment in the Steeleville cemetery.

She was born Jan. 8th, 1821, passed away Oct. 10th, 1921, age 100 years, 9 months, 2 days.

Few lives are so full of years and fruitful works as was hers.—

MRS. J. H. DAVIS

Mrs. J. H. Davis—Effie Alice, eldest daughter of R. E. and Rebecca J. Hoskinson, was born in Winfield, Franklin County, Illinois, June 21, 1870 and departed this life in Harrisburg, Illinois, May 18, 1922, age 51 years, 10 months and 27 days.

She was united in marriage to John H. Davis of Benton, Illinois, Feb. 22, 1888. To this union were born five children, three daughters and two sons—Mrs. Pauline Montague of Atlanta, Ga.; Mrs. Ada Fay Couch, Murphysboro, Ill.; Harry E. Davis, Louisville, Ky.; Mrs. Beulah Maude Smith, West Frankfort, Illinois, and John Chester Davis of Harrisburg, Ill.

For the first nine years of their married life, Mr. Davis was engaged in the mercantile business at West Frankfort and Frankfort Heights, where they resided. In 1897, her husband was admitted on trial in the Southern Illinois Conference and the life of an Itinerant Minister's Companion was gladly assumed by Sister Davis.

When 13 years of age the deceased was converted and united with the Methodist Episcopal Church at Benton, Illinois, was organist for a number of years, attended college at Oxford, Ohio, after graduating from the Benton High School, and attended the Weltmer Conservatory of Music in St. Louis.

Her Christian life was one of consistency and faithfulness, a devoted wife, a great worker, and a true friend of all. She was an inspiration to her husband in all the charges that he served and made it easier for him to succeed, some of the charges being the most difficult to serve in this conference. She was intensely spiritual, believed much in prayer, she leaned heavily on the strong arm of God, and always urged her husband to preach the truth. In all places they served there are a host of friends to rise up and call her blessed. Letters and telegrams received bear testimony of kindly and undying affection in which she was held.

She was not only a devoted church worker and loyal loving companion but one of the best mothers that ever lived. The heart broken husband and children suffer the greatest loss that has ever come to them, but they mourn not, as those who have no hope for they know that the one they loved and the one who loved them and always smiled upon them and carried her cross with a smile, has gone to that land of love and smiles to be forever with the Lord.

She leaves to mourn her departure, her husband, all the children, eight grand children, her aged father and mother, who reside in Buffalo, N. Y., and two brothers, W. W. Hoskinson, of St. Louis, Mo., and R. E. Hoskinson, Jr., of Buffalo.

The last charge served by Bro. and Sister Davis is Harrisburg, Ill., but by no means the least or unimportant, nor a charge with less love and devotion, the people have bestowed unlimited love and appreciation, together with greatest sympathy and affection in these sad hours. The bereaved will never forget nor find words to express their thanks to the many friends of the church and City of Harrisburg.

The funeral services were held at Harrisburg, in the church where her husband is pastor. A large audience from Harrisburg and many from far charges served by Brother and Sister Davis, the Floral tributes were many and beautiful. Twelve pastors from nearby charges were present at the funeral and the pastors of the Presbyterian and Baptist churches of the city. The District Superintendent, Dr. C. C. Hall, was in charge and spoke. Dr. G. E. McCammon, President of McKendree College, also spoke.

The interment was in the beautiful cemetery at Benton, Ill. A large number of friends accompanied the bereaved family on their mournful journey and a number of other pastors were present there who could not be present at the funeral services.

Brother Davis and his family have the sympathy of the entire Conference and hundreds of people hold him up to God in these sad days.

REVEREND WILLIAM HUNTSBURY

Rev. William Huntsberry, son of Rev. Samuel and Catherine Smith Huntsberry, was born in Medina county, Ohio, Oct. 8, 1861. Moved with his parents the next year to Owen County, Indiana, where the most of his childhood days were spent. Came to Illinois in 1881, locating near Mt. Erie. In December, 1888, he was united in marriage to Miss Mary Van Fossen, of Mt. Erie. The children of this union are Cloyd, of Seneca, N. M.; Ethel, at home; Mary, now the wife of Rev. Paul B. Brown, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church of Louisville, Ill.; Charles and Ruth, also at home.

Brother Huntsberry was reared in a Christian home. His father was a Missionary Baptist minister and his mother a Dunkard. There was a family altar as far back as he remembered.

He wrote to the author of this sketch: "I was wonderfully converted in a meeting held by Rev. Jacob Sheets, a U. B. preacher, at a church called Mt. Zion, in Clay County, Ind., and united with that church and remained a member of that society until I came to Wayne County, Ill., in 1881, when I united with the M. E. church at what was then the Wilson school house, Rev. J. P. Youngling, of precious memory, was pastor of the Mt. Erie charge. I always felt the call to preach, but did not yield until I was 38 years old. I was licensed to exhort by Rev. P. C. Carlin on June 13, 1898. Licensed to preach in 1900 at the District Conference held in Clay City, Ill., Rev. William Wallis presiding elder. . . I will only add if I had my life to live over I would be a Methodist preacher. Oh, I enjoyed the work. God was with me and is with me still, and as strength is waning, He is still my help and my hopes are bright."

Brother Huntsberry served Sumner Circuit two years; Jeffersonville, two years; Mt. Erie (his home charge), five years; St. Francisville, three years; Cisne and Rinard, three years. God blessed all these charges with wonderful revivals, the kind that last. He was ever a flaming evangelist for God. The community in which he lived had in their minister an example of real Christian living and all felt that in Brother Huntsberry they had a friend. He knew no class distinctions, the humble and poor occupying as high place as any in his attentions and affections. He had many calls for funerals and married a number of couples on what proved to be his deathbed. To the very last he was conscious of the ever-abiding presence of his Lord, shouting God's praises until the church militant was changed for the church triumphant. Among the last things he said was, "The flowers are so beautiful."

His death occurred Sept. 16, at his home near Mt. Erie. The funeral services were in charge of the Dist. Supt., Rev. J. G. Tucker. Rev. O. L. Markman delivered the sermon. Other ministers participating or present were the pastor, Rev. J. L. Miller, and the Revs. F. C. Brown, J. W. Tucker, Ernest Shepherd, Fay Marriott, E. L. Lawler, E. H. Cissna, W. C. Harms, and C. B. Latimer.

A true Christian, a faithful minister, a loyal friend, and a loving husband and father has gone to his reward. May we follow him as he followed Christ.

Rev. Robert D. Woodley was born near Columbia, the county seat of Tyrrell County, N. C., May 21, 1848, and died in St. Louis, July 9, 1922, aged 74 years, 1 month and 18 days.

His parents were both Christians and members of the Missionary Baptist church, though they were friendly to the Methodist circuit riders who occasionally came into the community. He attributed much of his inclination to a religious life to the influence of a praying mother. He attended a Methodist revival meeting and went to the altar when only eight years of age and would have joined the church at that time but his parents thought he was too young to understand the real significance of that important step. He later united with the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, at nineteen, and was licensed to preach in 1878. A little later he went to Arkansas where he was received into the White River Conference in 1881 and was ordained deacon by Bishop Granberry in 1883 at Newport, Ark. The next year he was transferred to Montana, and soon after came to our Church. He was ordained elder by Bishop Walden at the session of the Montana Mission in 1885. The same year he was transferred to the Southern Illinois Conference which was the field of the rest of his ministry. He served the following charge: Harrisburg, Nashville, Belleville, East St. Louis, Vandalia, Lebanon District, Carmi, Albion, Benton, Kinmundy and Chester. When he took the retired relation he moved to Lebanon where he had lived while Presiding Elder of the Lebanon District. About four years ago he moved to St. Louis because several of his children lived there.

His first wife whom he married during his brief ministry in Arkansas, died early, leaving him one daughter, now Mrs. George Ferguson of Carruthersville, Mo. After coming to southern Illinois, he was married to Miss Mary Tate of Harrisburg, who survives him with her four sons and three daughters, namely: Mrs. Mary Ballinger, Robert, Ralph, Randolph, Jessie, Sidney, and Mildred, now all grown and all of St. Louis except Robert, who lives at Houston, Tex.

Brother Woodley was an able preacher and a sympathetic pastor; a friend of education, and for many years a member of the Joint Board of McKendree College. He was of cordial and sociable disposition, a warm friend, and a good neighbor. He was devoted to God and the Church, also to his own home and family. Home was the happiest place on earth to him. He has now gone home to stay, where he is enjoying the eternal fellowships of the great family of God in Heaven.

REVEREND W. H. GANNAWAY

Rev. W. H. Gannaway was born in Morgan Co., Illinois, Oct. 21, 1844. and died in St. Joseph, Mo., Sept. 9, 1922, aged 77 years, 10 months and 19 days.

He was born of religious stock, of old Methodist parentage and grew up under the influence of a Godly home. When fifteen years of age he was converted and consecrated his young life to his newly found Lord.

He was a product of the farm and while still on the farm the Civil War broke out. He was too young to go, but two years after he had became eighteen years of age and obtained the consent of his father to enlist. He joined Co. K, 62nd Illinois Infantry and served until March 20, 1866. The last eight months of which were spent among the Indians.

In obtaining his education he encountered many and heavy odds, but there was no such a word as give up in his vocabulary. He became a teacher of school and of music, wherein he spent nearly ten years. Then came his call to the ministry. He was not disobedient. He entered Garret Biblical Institute and pursued the course to graduation.

His war experience left him with a serious handicap, a frail body, but nothing daunted, he labored on and was able to give upwards of forty years to the service of his church and his Savior.

He was united in marriage to Miss Evaline Veech, Dec. 19, 1867, to which happy union three children were born, two of whom passed on before to beckon them forward. For nine years they were happy together and then the wife and mother was called and he was left alone with his little son.

In 1878 he was again united in marriage. This time to Miss Jennie M. Lane, who still lives to survive him and mourn his going. To this union seven chilren were born, five of whom grew to man and womanhood.

The other two, with the son of his youth, were swept away by one stroke of the much dreaded disease, diphtheria. The others grew and honored him and still live, with the exception of Rollin S., whom he was called to mourn four years ago. There was much bereavement in his life, but his beloved Lord was always bigger than any possible bereavement and bore him serenely over.

His ministry was one of prevailing success. He preached and sang the Gospel. The people heard and responded. The Lord honored his life and work. He surely has "Fought a good Fight" and "Kept the Faith," and is now enjoying the "Reward" that has been laid up for him.

He was a true and tender husband, a loving father, and pastor who carefully cared for his people and commanded their deepest respect.

He took the retired relation in his Conference in 1913, but continued to preach until his failing health compelled him to cease.

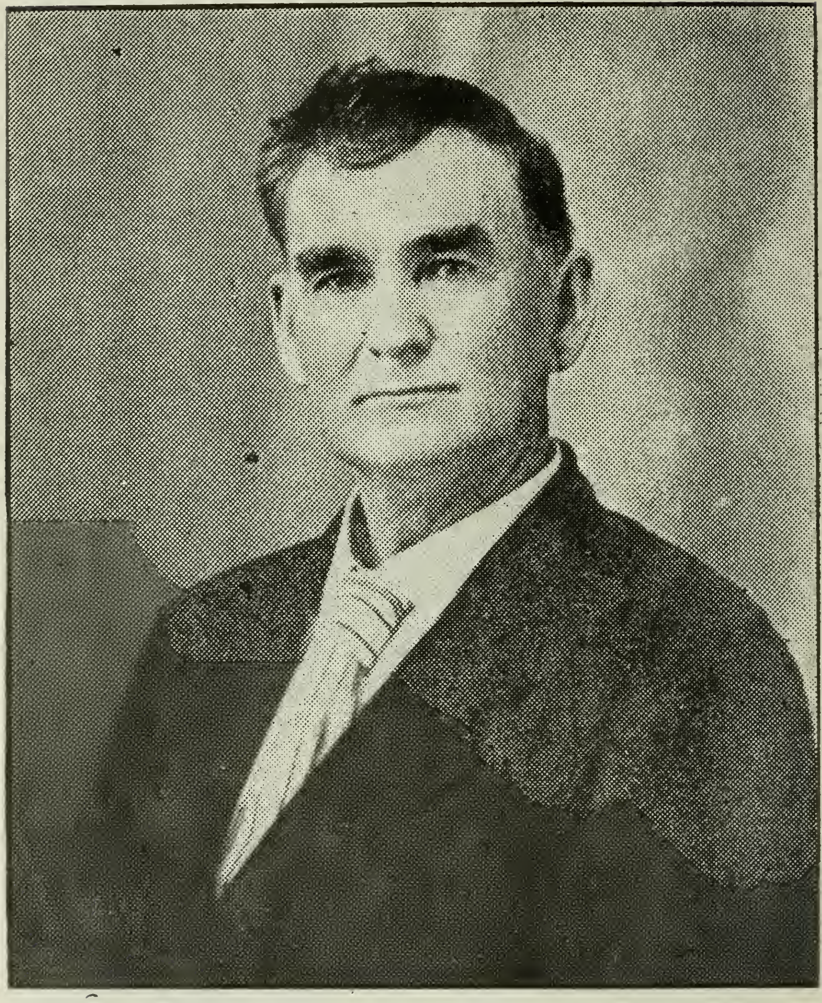
Besides his bereaved wife, he leaves four children; Paul N. Gannaway of Mt. Vernon, Ill.; J. Earle Gannaway, of Dupo, Ill.; Mrs. Osie L. Robinson, of Jackson, Miss., and Mrs. Imogene Pritchett of Harrison, Ark., and a host of relatives and friends to mourn his going. The members of his own, the Southern Illinois Conference will miss him and will hold his memory sacred until the final meeting around that throne of the Blessed.

REVEREND PERLEMAN H. HEARN

Rev. Perleman H. Hearn, was born in Williamson County, Illinois, Dec. 10, 1861, and died in Salem Illinois, July 30, 1922, age 60 years, seven months and twenty days. He grew to manhood at the home of his birth and for a number of years engaged in the occupation of farming.

On Jan. 11, 1883, he was happily married to Miss Carrie Baiar of Williamson county. This union was blessed with seven children, four of whom survive him. They are: Lennie Lloyd Hearn of Sunnyside, Washington; Harley Lee Hearn of Altamont, Illinois; Miss Lulu Mae Hearn of Tamaroa, Illinois, and Karl Kenneth, who resided with his parents in the parsonage at Salem, Illinois. Lawrence E. and Ralph Jewell died in infancy. Mrs. Mamie Blanchard of Tamaroa, Ill., died a few years ago.

In the Autumn of 1891 at Old Frankfort, Ill., Brother Hearn was gloriously converfted and united with the First M. E. Church at that place. Soon after his conversion he felt a definite call to the ministry and was licensed to preach as a local preacher at Vienna, Ill., in 1897. In the Fall of 1898, he gave up the occupation of farming and was appointed as a supply to the Frankfort charge where he served two years. Afterward he served the following charges: Opdyke, three years; Waltonville, two years as a supply pastor.



REVEREND PERLEMAN H. HEARN

In 1907 he was admitted in the annual Conference and served the following charges: Tamaroa, five years; Louisville, two years; Johnson City, one year; Marissa, four years; Collinsville, one year, and Salem, three years. After a few months of serious illness he gently fell asleep.

Rev. Hearn was a man of strong convictions and unflinching courage. He believed in the old-time doctrines of the Bible and Methodism. He was in every sense a fundamentalist and had little patience with anything that sounded like infidelity. As a preacher he was convincing and won men by the love he had for them. His sermons were always evangelical and he was fearless in his condemnation of sin. A truly good and great man has fallen.

The funeral services were conducted from the First M. E. Church of Salem, Wednesday, Aug. 2, at 2 P. M. The service was in charge of Rev. Ressho Robertson, D. D., the District Superintendent of Centralia District, who paid a beautiful tribute to the departed. Rev. C. C. Hall, of the Mt. Carmel District, and Rev. Rev. J. H. Davis, of Harrisburg, Illinois, gave very appropriate short talks, each speaking of the high character of Brother Hearn and his wonderful success in the ministry. The large church was crowded with loving friends from Salem and all over southern Illinois. The railroad shopmen, many of whom were converted by the ministry of Brother Hearn, attended in a body.

He leaves to mourn his loss, his devoted wife, Mrs. Carrie Hearn, the children mentioned, one brother, Mr. E. W. Hearn of Marion, Illinois; Mrs. Lee Willard, near Corinth, Illinois; Mrs. Addie Boyd, Marion, Illinois; one half-sister, Mrs. Myrtle Greenwood, Johnson City, Illinois; two half brothers, Charles Hearn of Corinth, and Alva of Johnson City, Illinois; also his aged mother-in-law, Mrs. Margaret Baiar of Johnson City, Illinois.

James Young Reid was born in Calloway county, Kentucky, Oct. 4, 1851, and died at his home in Marion, Illinois, June 2, 1922, at the age of 70 years, 7 months and 28 days.

When he was a small child the family moved to Illinois and settled in Johnson county near New Burnside, where he grew up. When he was 16 years of age he began teaching school, which vocation he followed for several years, supplementing it with farming.

J. Y. Reid and Miss Mary T. Purdom of Stonefort were married May 27, 1870, and to them five children were born.

Brother Reid was converted and united with the church, Sept. 28, 1878. Soon thereafter he was licensed to exhort and then was given the local preacher's license and in the fall of 1885 united with the Southern Illinois conference, where he maintained his relation to the time of his death, excepting a short time he was a member of the Missouri conference. He began his ministry on his home circuit, Eddyville, and served it with great satisfaction to the church. For the next three years he was at Eldorado and then for an equal length of time at Ensfield, then to Epworth and to Eldorado the second time and for five years at DuQuoin and from this charge he went as presiding elder of the Mt. Carmel district, from the district to Granite City and then to Belleville.

While pastor at DuQuoin his wife died and afterwards he was united in marriage to Miss Anna Bell Jackson of Benton, December 28, 1897, and one daughter survives of this union.

Brother Reid was secretary of the Mt. Carmel district conference for seven successive years and was for many years the statistical secretary of the conference. At the time of his death he was the superintendent of the Methodist Orphanage, located at Mt. Vernon.

JAMES YOUNG REID

He was a good preacher and a careful pastor, a man above many in looking after the details of the work. He was greatly respected by all his brethren and a large number of people all over the southern end of the state were grieved at his death. His funeral at Enfield, in charge of Dr. C. C. Hall, was probably attended by more of his brethren in the ministry than any other preacher who has ever passed away in this conference.
